From the Editor

I recently went on a work/vacation trip during which I decided to write a daily blog in keeping friends and family "posted" about the happenings. So this blog really documents everything that my family and I get up to while relaxing in new environments, and briefly mentions some of the work-related elements as well. Now, blogging is nearly as old as a primary school child, so it needs no new introduction.

This whole process got me thinking again though. Firstly, we are discovering new places, people and experiences every day, and in all I am reminded of the goodness of God. I have come to realize again that God is indeed universal, and wherever a packed suitcase may take us, there God goes with as well. David puts it far better in Psalm 139: God, investigate my life; get all the facts firsthand. I'm an open book to you; even from a distance, you know what I'm thinking. You know when I leave and when I get back; I'm never out of your sight. You know everything I'm going to say before I start the first sentence. I look behind me and you're there, then up ahead and you're there, too — your reassuring presence, coming and going. This is too much, too wonderful — I can't take it all in! Is there any place I can go to avoid your Spirit? To be out of your sight? If I climb to the sky, you're there! If I go underground, you're there! If I flew on morning's wings to the far western horizon, You'd find me in a minute — you're already there waiting! Then I said to myself, "Oh, he even sees me in the dark! At night I'm immersed in the light!" It's a fact: darkness isn't dark to you; night and day, darkness and light, they're all the same to you (The Message).

Secondly, I have met some amazing people and have been overwhelmed at the creativity of God. I have realized that all people are people! By this I mean that as a human I am no different from another – often we think that a different race or culture is a different species! The greatest discovery (perhaps it is more of a reminder) is that God cares for all the people on earth, no matter where they are. While it may take me nearly a day to travel to a new place on earth, God is already there. Global travel may take time for me, but the globe is in the palm of God's hand!

The blog I write in a sense becomes the documentation of God's hand in the life of my family and I. And we are overwhelmed... by an indescribable love and an immeasurable grace. We are also confronted by God's sense of humour and Him taking delight in our smallest pleasure. So the blog becomes a testimony to and of God in a sense. Who ever thought a blog could serve as a reminder of God? Initially I didn't, but now some weeks into our journey, I have come to see that the greatest experience of life is simply to encounter God, even in what we consider small things.

May this issue of MyFaith Magazine be a blessing this new spring month, and may you experience God in the smallest of small things! Send us a mail, drop a message on the website or Facebook, and share with us what God means to you.

Our Eternal Purpose

By André and Jenny Roebert

Spring is in the air and soon enough, the chill of winter will be behind us as we move into the next season of the year. As we well know, seasons come and go bringing with them new expectations and promises of change. But these aren't the only seasons we experience in life, in fact, since the time we were first conceived in the heart and mind of our creator, our seasons in life began. And they will continue to fill our lives for eternity. Seeing life from an eternal perspective can make those seasons full and meaningful as we learn to live on purpose.

What is my purpose?

So many people go through life wondering what their purpose in life is. They ask the questions, "Why was I born? Who am I? What is my purpose?" Today, we want to dispel any doubt concerning your purpose by casting light onto the One Who created you for His purpose. The Word of God gives clear evidence that God is an eternal God and His purpose for each of us has an eternal significance. The word eternity means: infinite time or the state of existence outside of time. This means that our purpose is not just for this time on earth, it's for eternity. That's why it's imperative to begin to see our lives from an eternal perspective and only the Word of God, through the leading of the Holy Spirit can do that because eternity cannot be grasped by our minds but by our hearts!

Take God's Word for it...

Take a look at what God's Word says concerning our purpose:
Psalm 139:16, "Your eyes saw my unformed substance, and in Your book all the days [of my life] were written before ever they took shape, when as yet there was none of them. How precious and weighty also are Your thoughts to me, O God! How vast is the sum of them!"

Ephesians 1:4, "Even as [in His love] He chose us [actually picked us out for Himself as His own] in Christ before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy (consecrated and set apart for Him) and blameless in His sight, even above reproach, before Him in love."

Ephesians 2:10, "For we are God's [own] handiwork (His workmanship), recreated in Christ Jesus, [born anew] that we may do those good works which God predestined (planned beforehand) for us [taking paths which He prepared ahead of time], that we should walk in them [living the good life which He prearranged and made ready for us to live]."

From the above scriptures, it's quite clear that our lives were never a mistake or afterthought. On the contrary, we were carefully, tastefully and painstakingly created by a God Who loves us fully, even from before we took our first breath, before, in fact, the earth we live on existed.

Two significant truths concerning our purpose....

My favourite scripture by far, that refers to our eternal purpose is Ecclesiastes 3:11, "He also has planted eternity in men's hearts and minds [a divinely implanted sense of a purpose working through the ages which nothing under the sun but God alone can satisfy]"

Two significant truths can be gleamed by this particular scripture: The fact that our purpose is eternal and that that purpose is a divinely (by God) implanted sense or instinct that God alone can satisfy.

Once again, it's confirmed that our purpose is an instinct that is grasped by our hearts and not our minds. Look what Romans 1:19 says, "For the truth about God is known to them instinctively. God has put His knowledge in their hearts."

So the question we should be asking ourselves is, "What is that instinctive purpose placed inside of us that can only be satisfied by God Himself?" Surely, if we know the answer to that question, we will know the answer to our eternal purpose.

Paul lived on purpose...

Probably the best example, outside of Jesus Christ, of someone who truly lived life on purpose with an eternal perspective would be the Apostle Paul.

In studying his life and all he accomplished for the kingdom of God, Paul made some remarkable statements that give a perfectly clear description of what our instinctive, eternal purpose is:

Philippians 3:7-8, "But whatever former things I had that might have been gains to me, I have come to consider as [one combined] loss for Christ's sake.....
Yes, furthermore, I count everything as loss compared to the possession of the priceless privilege (the overwhelming preciousness, the surpassing worth, and supreme advantage) of knowing Christ Jesus my Lord and of progressively becoming more deeply and intimately acquainted with Him [of perceiving and recognizing and understanding Him more fully and clearly]..."

V10,11, "[For my determined purpose is] that I may know Him [that I may progressively become more deeply and intimately acquainted with Him, perceiving and recognizing and understanding the wonders of His Person more strongly and more clearly], and that I may in that same way come to know the power outflowing from His resurrection"

After all that he had accomplished for the kingdom of God on this earth, Paul still placed the purpose of knowing God instinctively of greatest importance - in fact, he said that nothing he ever did compared to the importance of it.

Paul explained that to Know God instinctively, is a process whereby we are continually transformed to experience life from God's perspective. A victorious perspective as believers seated with Christ in Heavenly places. Believers not overwhelmed by the circumstances of this natural world. He also understood that in knowing God instinctively, we would experience the power of His resurrection flow in and through our lives into the lives of others.

In order for us to fully grasp our eternal purpose of knowing God instinctively, we must develop a relationship with The Word of God.

In order for us to fully grasp our eternal purpose of knowing God instinctively, we must develop a relationship with The Word of God. When we receive the Word with the honour and joy it deserves in our lives, it dwells in us richly (Colossians 3:16). This causes us to be continuously mindful of God's perspective and keeps us instinctively connected to His Spirit. Can you imagine living this way? Full of the Living Word and instinctively connected to and controlled by the Spirit of God? This is how we live with the resurrection power of God flowing in and through us. This is how we live our eternal purpose.

JASON CRABB

• WHAT IS A DAY LIKE IN THE LIFE OF JASON CRABB?
I am blessed to have the most beautiful wife, Shellye, and the two most gorgeous girls ever, Ashleigh and Emma. When I'm home, I like to wake up early, make them breakfast, have a little time to share with them and then take the girls to school. They love that and I do too! Then, during the day – like anyone else – I have a "honey-do" list, things that Shellye needs me to take care of and I love to serve her by making sure all the work gets completed. It's important for me and Shellye to have time together by ourselves too, we call that "date night" – it's important to keep "dating" your wife after you get married. We will take a night and go to a nice restaurant and go to a show, concert or something fun. She's been by my side for a long time, I love spending time with her.

• APART FROM MUSIC, WHAT ARE YOUR HOBBIES?
I enjoy spending time outdoors. We have a lake next to our house, and when school's out and it's a hot day, you can find us in the boat on the lake. As a family, we love to do that. My girls are very active in sports – you can always find me in the stands watching them play and cheering really loud.

• WHAT IS YOUR FAVOURITE SPORT TO WATCH/PLAY?
Kentucky basketball – go Wildcats! Anyone who knows me, knows I am a BIG BLUE fan through and through – the color of the basketball team is blue and their mascot is a wildcat. Before I started singing, I wanted to be a basketball player, but God had other plans and I am so thankful He did.

• REFERRING TO THE TITLE "WHATEVER THE ROAD"... YOUR STORY IS ONE OF REMAINING FAITHFUL NO MATTER THE UPS AND DOWNS. WHAT ADVICE WOULD YOU GIVE TO READERS ABOUT DEALING WITH LOSS?
Everyone experiences loss at some time in their lives. That's life. But God promised in His word that He would never leave us or forsake us and that He would be with us until the end. Now that's a promise we can hold on to. He has promised that He would meet us.

• DURING SOME OF THE DARKEST DAYS, WHAT SCRIPTURE WOULD YOU HOLD ON TO?
Trust in the Lord with all your heart, and do not lean on your own understanding. In all your ways acknowledge Him and He will make straight your paths. - Prov. 3:5 & 6. Anytime I go through a situation in my life, this is something I can hold onto. We don't always understand what God is doing, but we are told to trust Him and He's never failed us yet.

• HOW MANY OF THE SONGS ON THE ALBUM DID YOU PERSONALLY WRITE?
I co-wrote seven songs on Whatever The Road.
Every night I visit with people after the concert until the very last person is gone – I love to hear their stories. Many of the songs on this project came out of stories I've heard or experiences in my own life. One very special song is my current single "He Knows What He's Doing." No matter what is going on in life, God knows what He's doing and we have to trust Him – even when it's hard and makes absolutely no sense to us at all.

• FAVOURITE SOCIAL MEDIA PLATFORM AND WHY?
Oh boy, this is a hard one because they all serve a purpose. I love to connect with people and Facebook, Twitter, and Instagram but I'd have to say Facebook is probably my favorite.

• IF YOU THINK OF SOUTH AFRICA, WHAT IS THE FIRST THING THAT COMES TO MIND?
BEAUTY – the people and the land. I've heard it's beautiful there and seen some wonderful pictures of the land and people. The one thing that comes to mind is the wild animals found there. I love nature and South Africa to me is probably the most remote area for wild animals.

• ANY PLANS ON TOURING SOUTH AFRICA IN THE FUTURE?
That is a great idea! I would loveto come, let's get a tour going.

• WHAT IS YOUR FAVOURITE SONG ON THE ALBUM AND WHY?
I have so many favorites but the one that strikes closest to my heart is a song called "Home." My grandmother Billie was my favorite person and I loved her with all my heart. She passed away earlier this year, and one of the last conversations we had was on a day when I was just having "one of those days." She said "Jase" – that's what she called me – "when you get to the end of your rope, just hold on real tight and know that He's holding onto the other end." I miss her, every single day but I know right where she is. She loved Jesus with every thing that was in her and she let everyone that she came in contact with know just how much Jesus loved them.

• WHAT PRACTICAL ADVICE DO YOU HAVE FOR COUPLES WITH A BUSY LIFE LIKE YOURS TO KEEP THEIR MARRIAGE ALIVE?
Communication is key. You've got to keep the lines of conversation open. Keep dating each other – keep going out for special nights, special days. Treat each other like you did when you first fell in love.

• YOU HAVE EVEN HAD A ROAD NAMED AFTER YOU! WHO IN YOUR FAMILY HELPS YOU REMAIN AS HUMBLE AS YOU ARE?
My wife Shellye, and my girls Ashleigh and Emma are the ones who keep me grounded. I get to take out the trash, mow the grass, fix the toilet. That'll keep you humble! My Grandfather and Grandmother taught me about hard work and instilled within me that "you get what you work for" and that "God blesses hard work" - those words ring in my head every day.

• WHICH MUSICIAN FRIENDS DO YOU "CONSULT" ON YOUR ALBUMS OR TRACKS, AND WAIT IN ANTICIPATION TO HEAR THEIR OPINIONS?
My brothers Adam & Aaron – I always like to run the music by them. I think we've made music together for so long, we've worked on music together so it's always fun to go back and play a track for them – talk about the direction of the music.

• WHO IS YOUR BIGGEST CRITIC?
The Bible says "iron sharpens iron" and I have some of the best "iron sharpeners" there are. My management team - Philip & Tina Morris - have been a Godsend to my life and my family's life. They've been with me from the beginning and over the years, they've consistently pushed me to be a better person – not just an artist – but to be a better dad, husband, brother and friend. They have seen it all – from the beginning. Recently, God has placed a lady named Diane Sheets in my life. She's helped me be more polished and she's the first to call out a wrong note or tell me where I can improve myself and how I can connect more with the audience.

• WHAT HAVE YOU LEARNT THE MOST ABOUT BEING A DAD TO TWO BEAUTIFUL DAUGHTERS?

Everyone always says kids will change your life forever, but I don't think I understood just how much being a dad would change me and challenge me. I grew up in Beaver Dam, KY, which is just as small as it sounds. It's the kind of place where everyone knows everybody and in a sense, your neighbor's sort of feel like your family. Beyond that, I was on the road with my family for years doing music. I know family. I do the family thing well. But there is no amount of family time that could ever prepare you for kids. There is absolutely nothing in the world like being a father. Soon, I'm going to be the father of teenagers, which just seems crazy. Time flies so fast. The last thing I want to do is waste it or miss out on a chance to teach them something or encourage them in some way. I think as much as Shellye and I want to be the best parents we can be, we're still human and sometimes it's going to be trial and error. I sit back all the time and ask myself, what are they thinking? What's going through their minds? Am I doing this right? Am I giving them enough...or too much? Am I really teaching them how to live a life in Christ? In a lot of ways, God is answering all these questions and blessing me through the faith that's growing inside each of my daughters' hearts. To watch my girls get to know Christ...really, there aren't words to describe that feeling. It's amazing and demands that I keep growing right alongside them. The Bible tells us, "Train a child in the way he should go, and when he is old he will not turn from it." (Proverbs 22:6).

• YOU HAVE ACHIEVED SO MUCH IN YOUR LIFE, A GRAMMY AWARD, TOO MANY DOVE AWARDS TO LIST, WHAT IS STILL ON YOUR "BUCKET LIST"?

I'd like to hold a traveling revival tour – an old tent revival and take it on the road. One of those where you put the tent up for a few days and then move to the next city – lots of music and messages. I love to see people changed by the power of God's word – in music and message.

Family Feuds

By Waldo Malan

Fighting within families is nearly as old as time itself. Soon after the creation of the world we find the first-born earthling killing the second-born earthling over some perceived slight. Incidentally, Abel was wholly unaware that he had offended his brother Cain to warrant a cold-blooded murder. It nearly seems as if this incident set a precedent for the future of mankind.

Perhaps it would do us well to consider the nature and purpose of a family, and then from there see what we can do to preserve this precious unit. Essentially God, who is love, created humans because He longed for relationship. The very nature of love requires that we have to love, and also be loved in return. This reciprocal exchange forms the basis of all relationships, and in the mind of God sealed the purpose and function for His creation. We read in the Genesis account that this perfect relationship lasted for a while, where God is found to walk in the cool of the day with Adam and Eve; I can just imagine how interesting those conversations must have been! However, we are soon introduced to Satan, who is pathologically jealous of the relationship (and we can call it a Father-child, family relationship) between God and man, and we also see how cunningly he puts a wedge between God and the crown of His creation.

The plan of God was that man was to multiply, increase, be fruitful, and to be the ranking authority over all the creatures on earth; the earth still belongs to God! In essence man was to rule, subdue and reign on earth as a steward of God's property, and to help him in this task he could rely on his family. But that prideful fallen angel is still at work to bring about disunity and to dismantle as best he can the family unit of God's intention. The history of mankind is filled with stories of family feuds, and leaves in its wake hate, bitterness, unforgiveness and death – this is far removed from the original blueprint for mankind. Writers and filmmakers have immortalised many tales that at its core has family fighting as the theme.

God's idea of family gets a renewed focus in the New Testament, where believers are again encouraged to call Him Abba, Father, and where they are referred to as children of God. The family unit again became the focus and purpose behind mankind's existence. Yet, still the enemy of mankind schemes to break up the unity upon which God commands a blessing. In most cases the basis for disunity in many families is small and insignificant issues, which through pride and the refusal to forgive, soon blossom into a full-scale storm of anger, strife and hate.

The New Testament Church is also likened to a family, all being brothers and sisters in Christ. It is rather sad that within this family there seem to be constant and persistent fights that bring dishonour to the Father. One hears about congregations that are openly hostile to one another, denominations that will not tolerate those with a different view, and ministers publically attacking their brothers for insignificant issues. Often ministers are ruled by them striving after numbers (members of their church family), boasting about the financial income they are able to generate, or even about the impact they have in the local community. The World Christian Encyclopaedia cites 33000+ total "Christian" denominations (Barrett, Kurian, & Johnson, Oxford University Press, 2nd edition, 2001). I do not decry denominations per se, however, when one considers that a denomination is basically defined by its doctrine (set of beliefs and interpretation of Scripture), and that many denominations were birthed through a church split (family feud), it does put a damper on the celebration. Now, what is true for congregations (of all denominations), is also true of other Christian organization and companies, and one is constantly exposed to stories of feuding in the media. Ultimately I am decrying the dishonour within our Christian family, not only towards one another, but also towards our Father.

I often wonder how it was possible for 33000 separate belief systems to have been birthed out of one cross, one death and one commission, and all this over a mere 2015 years! Imagine the impact of a "single family", with a singular vision and purpose, on a society! Imagine the significant contribution this "family" would be able to make in the lives of people! Imagine a family united in love, with no in-fighting, grudges or offenses, but with a single focus of sharing that love! If we are able to imagine this, then nothing we can imagine will be able to predict the response from God!

It is time that the family of God place focus on what really matters: tell the world about His love. In love there is no disunity, hate or striving, but everything opposite to this and more!

So, are you ready to look at your own life and opinions, and restore those relationships that have suffered either consciously or unconsciously? Are you ready to forego your perceptions for the sake of focussing on simply loving God and others? Are you ready to decree that the greatest thing in life is to love and be loved in return?

Overcome Doubt and Live with Bold Faith

In Acts 27 (AMP), there's a great story about the apostle Paul. He was travelling by ship with some people when "a violent wind [of the character of a typhoon]...came bursting down from the island" (v. 14). For days they were caught in the storm, and at one point it was so fierce, they were "dangerously tossed about by the violence of the storm" (v. 18) and had to throw the ship's equipment overboard. They ended up without food, hungry, stranded – seemingly without hope.

In that moment, Paul stood in the midst of the survivors and said to them, "I beg you to be in good spirits and take heart, for there will be no loss of life among you..." (v. 22). He then shared that an angel of God told him this, and said in verse 25, "So keep up your courage, men, for I have faith (complete confidence) in God that it will be exactly as it was told me."

How could Paul, in the middle of a horrible storm, ask the people to "be in good spirits" and have a good attitude? Because he believed in his heart—without a doubt—"that it will be exactly as it was told me." I love that! It's a great picture of the power of faith in God when all hope seems lost. And we can have the very same faith that Paul had if we will overcome doubt.

We all face storms in life. Some are more difficult than others, but we all go through trials and tribulation. That's why we have the gift of faith. Ephesians 6:16 (NIV) calls it "the shield of faith, with which you can extinguish all the flaming arrows of the evil one." Doubt is a type of "flaming arrow" that the enemy uses to attack our faith.

We usually experience doubt after we've made a decision. In James 1:6, the Bible says having doubt is like being tossed about like the wind, which feels like you're trying to go in two different directions at the same time. And it's miserable to be torn between two places, not able to decide what you really believe. It's in those moments we have to choose whether we are going to believe God or the enemy...God or our feelings...God or what people tell us...God or our circumstances...

When doubt comes against us, we have to lift up the shield of faith. We do this when we open our mouth and say what God's Word says, rather than grumbling and complaining about the problem. Our faith is released as we say, pray and do the Word. So in those times, open your mouth and say, "I believe that everything God has told me will come to pass!"

Maybe you're doubting whether you can hear God's voice or not. This happens because we usually doubt ourselves more than we doubt God. Now I'm not talking about actually hearing a voice; I'm talking about that knowing we have insideour hearts about what is right or wrong. That's the still, small voice of God.Believers in Jesus Christ all have it, but many don't have the confidence to trust it.

The Bible says in James 1:5 that when we need wisdom, we can go to God, ask Him for it, and He will give it to us "liberally and ungrudgingly, without reproaching or faultfinding" (AMP). What this means is that even with our imperfections, God will be faithful to us and give us what we need if we will ask Him for help. He loves us, blesses us and uses us in spite of us, because He is faithful! And we never have to doubt that.

I've learned through my own relationship with God that He's not expecting me to be perfect; He wants me to do my best to be in His will and take steps of faith as He leads me, through His Word and the promptings He speaks to myheart. Remember, He wants us to put our confidence in Him. God really does want to speak to you personally and lead you in His great plan for your life. So don't be afraid to step out and do what's in your heart. If you make a mistake, you'll learn from it and go on. That's how we "step out and find out." And we all have to do it.

I want to encourage you to begin making confessions every day that will help you grow in your faith and confidence in God. We need to make declarations like, "God loves me. He wants to speak to my heart. I can hear from God. He is faithful to me and will lead me in His will for my life. And I believe it will be exactly as God has told me!" By God's grace, we can be bold in faith and overcome every attack of doubt during the storms of life.

Our direction finder

By Angus Buchan

Over the years I have read much about the importance of God's Holy Word and I have read many scriptures, but it is only recently that the relevance of God's Holy Word (The Bible) has become so important to me. My concern amongst God's people is not ISIS or Al Qaeda or any other group that is hell bent on killing God's believers, but my main concern is compromise and heresy within the fold. Jesus warns us very clearly to be careful about wolves who parade around in sheep's clothing. When we see international Christian leaders saying that the Bible is of no importance in society and if it keeps getting quoted it will have no consequence in society today. That type of terminology concerns me deeply. Especially when it comes to young people who are really seeking direction. At the end of the day if you take the Bible out of the equation you have nothing left. Everything we believe, everything we stand for comes from God's Holy Word. Jesus says that He puts His Word above His name. He says that heaven and earth will pass away, but His Word will never pass away. Jesus says He came to fulfil The Word, not to take anything away from it. Therefore the Old Testament is equally as important as the New Testament.

In fact if we look at 1 John 5:7 (NKJV) "For there are three that bear witness in heaven: the Father, the Word, and the Holy Spirit; and these three are one." Therefore we see that Jesus Christ is in fact The Word and The Word is Christ. If we look at John 1:1 (NKJV) we see one's again the importance of God's Holy Bible, it says "In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God." So how can we say in modern day society that the Word of God has no more relevance. I would say it is more important today than ever before, because if there is any dispute we need to go back to the Bible. I am not interested in your opinion and you should not be interested in my opinion, we are only concerned about God's opinion. The legacy which I am determined to leave my family and the body of Christ is the importance of God's Word, because when everything else departs God's Word will stand. As we see in Amos 8:11 the Lord warns us that the days are coming when there will be a famine in the land, not a famine for bread, not a thirst for water, but of hearing the Words of the Lord. So you and I are custodians of God's Holy Word on earth until we go home to be in heaven, and we preserve the Word as it stands. Nothing added to it, nothing taken away from it, because the Bible tells us clearly that if we adjust this Bible at all every plague in the Book will come upon us. I cannot stress enough how God has spoken to me about the importance of speaking His unadulterated Word without any apology whatsoever. I want to be His Colporteur. Now a colporteur is a man in the early days that would go from door to door selling The Bible. He carried a rug sack and he took Bible's from door to door, in the country, in the city marketing the Word of God. What a noble way to live one's life.

In the Word of God we have everything we need. The Word of God is our compass, our direction finder (Psalm 119:105, "Your word is a lamp to my feet and a light to my path."), it is healing (James 5:16 "The effective, fervent prayer of a righteous man avails much."), it instructs us how to anoint the sick with oil and pray the prayer of faith which will heal the sick. Indeed if you are reading this article and you are lacking faith in these hard times in which we are living then you need to get into this Book and read it systematically. Not randomly. Starting maybe in the Book of Psalms and then going across to the Gospel of John. Reading a portion each day and then applying it to your life, because The Bible says in Romans 10:17 (NKJV) "So then faith comes by hearing, and hearing by the word of God."

If you are having problems with your family and priorities at home then you need to apply what the Bible tells us about the model family. E.g. Husbands love your wives, wives submit to your husbands. Children respect your elders, elders don't antagonise your children, and then you will see a difference in your family literary over night, but the problem is many of us and some of us are even Preachers, tend to water down The Bible. We side step issues that are of relevance, because we don't want to offend people. The Bible is a life saver, but the Bible can also be a tremendous offence to those who are wrestling with God.

So God has given me a "mandate" and He has told me that in the last chapters of my life I need to start preaching The Word more sincerely, telling less stories about other things and getting back to the lifesaving Word of God. I really want to say to you, my dear friend, it will be a good thing for you to start memorising scripture and hide it in your heart, because we do not know what the future holds for us. We know that we are living in the last days and those of us who are Bible speaking believers are going to be severely tested before the coming of the Lord. If you want to leave something for your children, leave them The Word of God. In closing the Lord says clearly in Proverbs 3:5-6 (NKJV), "Trust in the LORD with all your heart, And lean not on your own understanding; In all your ways acknowledge Him, And He shall direct your paths."

50 Shades of Grey

BY PS LODEWYK SPIES

Well whether you are Mr. Grey, Mr. Black, Mr. White, Mr. Pink or Yellow the same goes for all. As the German saying goes, 'Before God and the bus conductor all are the same.' The thing is that we all arrive, in more or less the same state, without Huggies. We all go in the same state, without Huggies. So from 'no-Huggies' to 'no-Huggies' all are pretty much on the same trajectory. This is if you believe the song that Bette Midler made popular, 'From a distance.' The lyrics of the last verse go something like this:

'It's the hope of hopes; it's the love of loves.
This is the song of every man.
And God is watching us, God is watching us,
God is watching us from a distance.
Oh, God is watching us, God is watching.
God is watching us from a distance.'

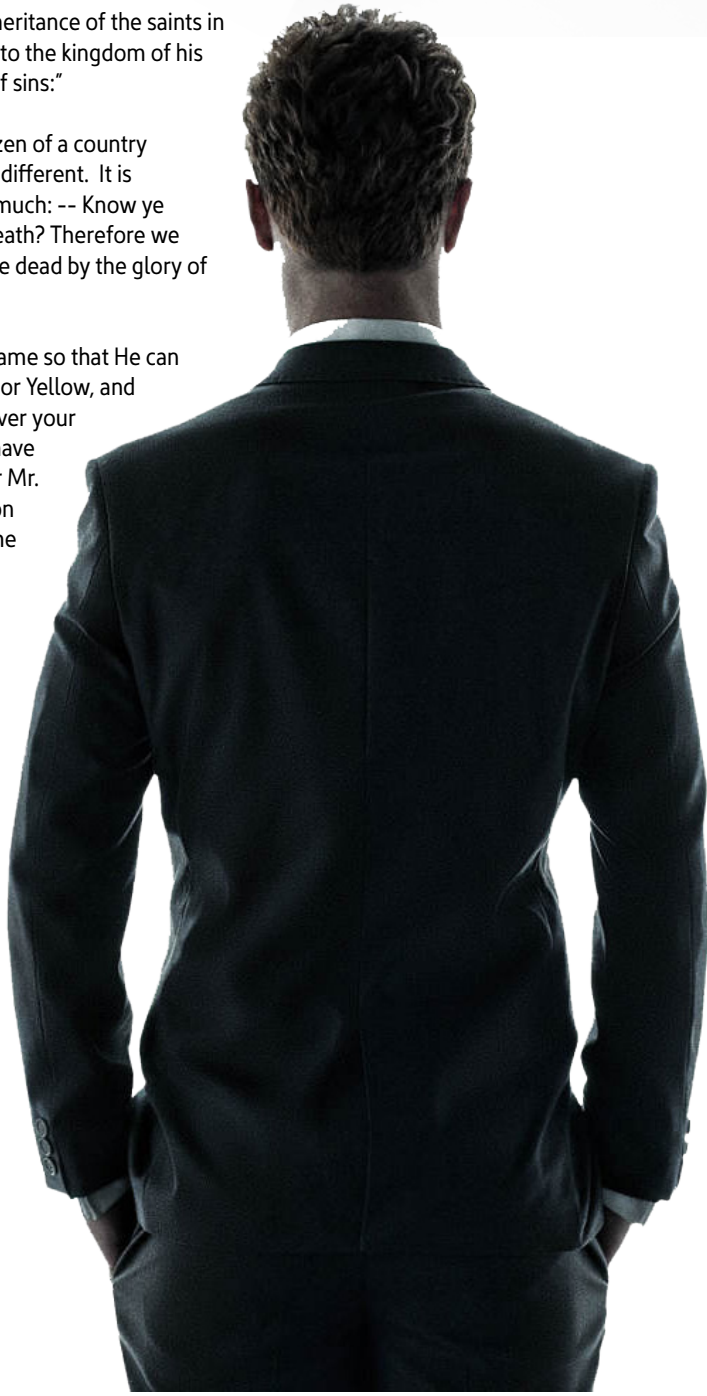
If you are of the view that God is watching us from a distance, it is probably time you change the scale you are judging things by. God is definitely not one that goes for 50 shades of Grey. In fact He despises it. It is not fair that one whips yourself or anyone for that matter thinking that God is watching us from a distance. If God did not have an eye for detail, your fingerprint would not be a unique characteristic, unique enough to be identified and distinguished from any person that probably ever lived on this earth. Amazingly the fingerprint is not the only uniqueness about you. Your eyes, hence the things you use to distinguish one shade of grey from another are as unique as your voiceprint. Amazingly all as unique as your DNA string. Why your hands, eyes and voice? I am not sure, but if you have a few minutes spare between paging through the greys of the catalogues of your favourite paint shop, consider this:

Isaiah 49:15-16 reads: "Can a woman forget her sucking child, that she should not have compassion on the son of her womb? Yea, they may forget, yet will I not forget thee. Behold, I have graven thee upon the palms of my hands; thy walls are continually before me..."

Admittedly God is speaking to 'Zion'. Reading Isaiah 34, God says this about those living in Zion: 'And the inhabitant shall not say, I am sick: the people that dwell therein shall be forgiven their iniquity.' Hence, whether or not you believe that you might just be a shade of grey, not being distinguished one from the other or not. All that you need to know is what God wants for you – all the inhabitants of the beloved city can know that God does not want them sick, and that they have a clean bill of health. To become an inhabitant of that City you need to have your passport changed, you need to immigrate.

Colossians 1:13 is insightful pieces on the effect of filling out your application form to immigrate: 'Who hath delivered us from the power of darkness, and hath translated us into the kingdom of his dear Son.' The prior and next verse of the same chapter explains the rest:

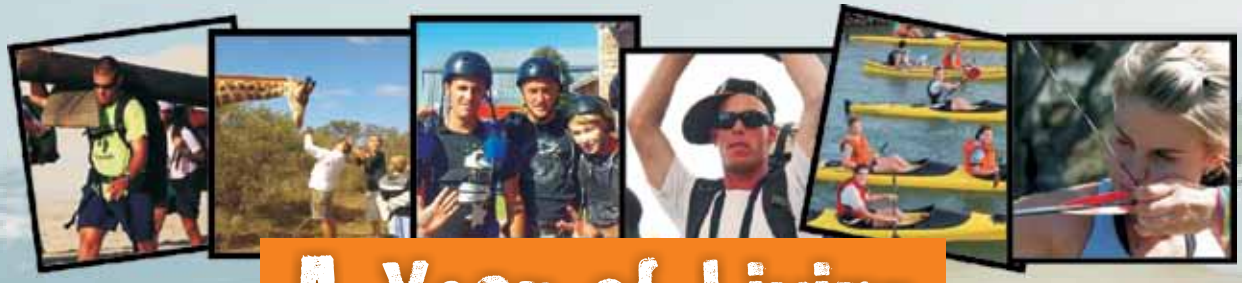
"Giving thanks unto the Father, which hath made us meet to be partakers of the inheritance of the saints in light: Who hath delivered us from the power of darkness, and hath translated us into the kingdom of his dear Son: In whom we have redemption through his blood, even the forgiveness of sins:"



To immigrate you need to make Him your King, and by doing so you become a citizen of a country where all the benefits of the country accrues to you. However, this immigration is different. It is something to die for. Praise God –He died for us. The life that is free that cost so much: -- Know ye not, that so many of us as were baptized into Jesus Christ were baptized into his death? Therefore we are buried with him by baptism into death: that like as Christ was raised up from the dead by the glory of the Father, even so we also should walk in newness of life. (Romans 6:3-4).

Without fooling around too much, God made His intentions clear, He gave you a name so that He can call you by it. If you recognize your name, Mr. Grey, Mr. Black, Mr. White, Mr. Pink or Yellow, and respond, your life will be turned into fifty shades of gold, or blue or pink, or whatever your favourite colour might be. Why? Because God expressed the desire that you can have life and have that to the overflowing. That is why Jesus came, Mr. Gold, Mr. Blue or Mr. Pink, whatever your name might be. He thought of you when He made the decision to live out His Father's dream for you. You might think that the nails kept Him on the cross. It did not. His love for you kept Him there, John, Joe, or Janet. Because He knew your name before the foundations of this world was put in.

If you want to commit suicide, ignore Jesus. Why suicide? Every person that opts to die by refusing Jesus is committing suicide. Do not believe the lie that God does not know your name. You matter to Him. The Word and the world are full of testimonies of God showing Himself strong on behalf of those that do not have a name. They said 'Yes.' when God called. Samuel did when God spoke, so did David and John. Your turn now Mr. and Ms. Not so Grey; because you need God's DNA to have a changed trajectory, so that you will not be one that is just know as another 'from-Huggies-to-Huggies' person, but that the records, specifically the book of life, can show that you were born in Zion. For the person prior to you being born again, the records will show that you born somewhere on earth and died on the cross in Christ. The new man, born in Zion, alive and well; now and for all eternity, the new creature, the old is gone, the new has come. Peter or Paul or whatever you are called; no more greys, His love for you was written in blood. As the singer Mr. Cohen has to say - there ain't no cure, there ain't no cure for love, it is written in the Scriptures, it is written there in blood. There ain't no cure for love.



A Year of Living Adventurously

BEYOND ADVENTURE
Xtreme Gap year

FULL & HALF YEAR OPTIONS NOW AVAILABLE!

Full Year 16th Jan - 3rd Dec
1st Half Year 16th Jan - 18th Jun
2nd Half Year 16th Jul - 3rd Dec

The concept of 'Extreme Education' was designed to provide a challenging environment for young people to discover and develop their leadership potential.

A gap year gives young people time to reflect on what they think would be the college/varsity or career choice best suited to their needs.

What makes your programme extreme and adventurous?

We offer students a wide range of extreme activities to participate in such as: scuba diving, mountain biking, abseiling, kayaking, paint ball, 4x4 off-road driving, etc.

What is the value of a gap year programme?

A gap year gives young people time to reflect on what they think would be the college/varsity or career choice best suited to their needs. It allows them to clarify their interests and become aware of their strengths and weaknesses.

We also believe a gap year allows them to take advantage of learning that takes place outside the classroom and apply these skills in real life situations, within a protected environment. It is imperative that youths experience life in communities different from those in which they have been living and our extreme gap year programme offers them this experience. We further believe that gap years allow students to learn about a variety of careers before making a critical decision and to gain maturity, initiative and resourcefulness, all valuable life skills.

What outcome do you hope is achieved in every student's life once completing your programme?

Our programme is designed to meet, challenge and grow the complete individual, body, soul and spirit, as we train tomorrow's leaders today. Our desire is for the young person to have fun and 'discover themselves' as they are developed into a person with vision and purpose. We endeavour to take boys and girls and to mould them into young men and women that will have a positive influence on our society and the world.

Describe how the programme works - when is your intake, how long does it last and how much does it cost?

The Beyond Adventure Extreme Leadership Gap Year Programme was launched in 2001. We are located 100 kilometres north east of Port Elizabeth in Alicedale. We are situated close to some of the great game reserves such as Addo Elephant Park and Shamwari. Our programme runs from mid January till the first week of December. The students are accommodated in rooms where they will learn to live with three other students.

Cost enquires and further info can be obtained from our offices as well as our website.

What makes your programme unique as opposed to other Gap year courses?

We believe the Beyond Adventure concept to be unique in South Africa. The concept of 'Extreme Education' was designed to provide a challenging environment for young people to discover and develop their leadership potential. Leadership deals with direction, vision, purpose and principles and our leadership programme focuses on building the students up, making them aware of other cultures, helping them with emotional bank account building and strengthening them as individuals functioning in a group context.

Most importantly, we run a programme that is founded on Biblical principles with Jesus Christ as the foundation stone.

Hello boys and girls

BY ESTHER NAIDOO

Hello boys and girls, I'm so excited that in a few weeks time it will be Spring. With it comes warm and sunny days, which means we get to play outside and enjoy my favourite activity, swimming.

The thing I enjoy most about Spring is that every year mommy helps us plant herbs and vegetables. Last year we planted beans and cherry tomatoes, those are the little ones that mommy uses in salad. I love the process of preparing the soil, planting the seeds, watering it daily and even the task of adding smelly compost to help it grow. The best part of course is when the plant is fully grown and you get to pick the fruit or vegetables.

Mommy always uses this process to remind us that the seed we place in the ground is like our faith in Jesus. When we get saved our faith is sometimes small and we still struggle with fear and trusting God fully.

But as we mature and water our faith with prayer and add nutrients to enrich it with the Word of God in the Bible our faith grows and becomes strong. The fruits that are produced when we grow are both natural, so things we can see and touch, like being able to witness to a friend about Jesus and seeing their lives change as well as spiritual like a heart that is patient and that shows love and compassion to others.

The Bible says in John 15 that Jesus is the true vine, we are the branches and God is the gardener who looks after and prunes us so that we can bear fruit, like grapes in a vineyard if you think of it in the literal sense. It also tells us that we must be in Jesus to bear fruit otherwise we will not grow. Ask your mommy or daddy to read you the full passage. This passage of scripture also has a promise attached to it at the end, that if we remain in Jesus and allow God to cultivate the fruits in our lives that we can ask God for anything according to His will and it will be done. I think that's amazing.

Prayer

Dear God thank You for being the gardener of our lives and souls. Thank You that You look after us and prune us with chastisement so that we can grow and bear fruit. Help us to also look after our faith my watering it with prayer and reading the Bible. Thank You that we know that if we are in Jesus and He is in us that we can ask anything of You and it will be done. We love You with our whole heart.

STUDIO PROJECT UPDATE

FRIDAY 14 AUGUST 2015
DAY 133: 122 DAYS TO GO

It is with great excitement that we give you the latest update on the Studio Project. May we start off by saying how grateful we are that you have partnered in this vision with us? So many times when a ministry project of great magnitude is launched people who fail to 'connect' with the vision start thinking that it is all about the resources, but we know that the majority of our partners have, in fact, connected with the vision! When God gives a vision to accomplish much for His Kingdom, He also provides the necessary resources, and of this we bear positive testimony! The vision is plain and simple - Go and make disciples in all the nations, baptizing them into the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and then teach these new disciples to obey all the commands I have given you; and be sure of this—that I am with you always, even to the end of the world (Matthew 28:19-20 TLB). And this is the exact mandate of Faith Broadcasting Network and its partners! Thank you again for heeding the voice of Christ and partnering with us to make this commission a reality.

We decided from the start that to mark our commitment of making this project about the Word, to place four Bibles in the four corners of the new studio. This is our way of saying the project has the Word of God as its foundation! We placed a Bible in the middle of the floor at the casting of the first new concrete in May, and on 31 July we placed the east corner Bible in the foundation! Our partners have sent us some of their favourite Scriptures and promises, and these were highlighted in the Bible that was placed in the fresh concrete. Please continue to send us your Scriptures as we are still going to place a further three Bibles!

The project is progressing at a steady pace, despite a few concerns about some unseasonal wet weather! Again, the progress is a testimony to the goodness and provision of God in all areas! We are grateful that God has put the right team into place to see His vision fulfilled.

While there is hectic construction happening on the fourth floor of River Park, the floors below remain a hive of activity in the daily tasks that keep Faith Broadcasting Network on the air, and your favourite programmers and presenters 'in your lounge!' In a manner of speaking "all hands are on deck."

We are further happy to report that to date all the partners who have joined in the vision of seeing God's kingdom extended have pledged 49,56% of the initial R30-million budget. This is a significant 5,45% increase from our last update and equates to just over R14,8 million, of which roughly 49% has been received. The team of Faith Broadcasting Network is very privileged to have so many like-minded people at their side and is honoured to call them friends! We praise God for such faithful partners. There are daily calls and emails from people all over the world who are pledging support, both in prayer and finances, for the project. We know that God commands His blessing where there is unity, and so together and united we believe to see the entire renovation completed on time.

Thank you for your continued support of this vision in prayer and finances - we value your partnership greatly! To give you some practical insight into the timeline of the project, and also to help you pray specifically for each stage in this phase of the development, here is an anticipated timeline (we will keep updating you with the latest news as the plans unfold!

COMPLETED PHASES

- Vacating of Studio A (old) and removal of all broadcast equipment.
- Renovation of Studio B as the interim main broadcast studio.
- Removal of ±55% of the old wooden floor and shuttering put in place.
- Casting of seven parts of the new concrete floor now completed and shuttering in place for the next sections, while some of the shuttering is already being removed.

PHASES TO BE COMPLETED 4 May - 15 December

- Lifting of Oregon floorboards
- Complete casting of concrete floor
- Erection of support beams
- Erection of roof trusses
- Building of tiered seating structure
- Waterproofing of entire roof/wall areas

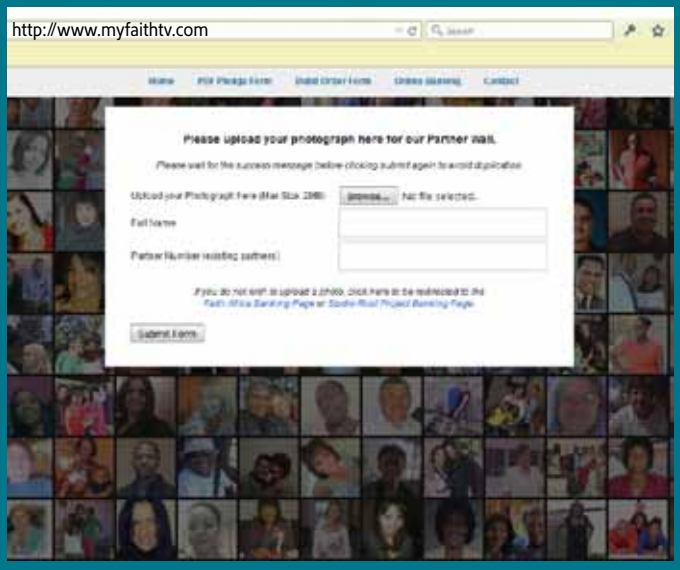
PHASE 2

- Carpeting
- Chairs to be installed on tiers
- Construction of stage and storage areas
- Installation of sound, light and video equipment
- Building of main set for studio broadcasts
- Installation of sprinkler system
- Construction of bathroom facilities
- Installation of video wall for stage & roof display
- Finishing of 100-seater Partners Prayer Chapel
- Finishing of VIP Lounge for visiting speakers and artists
- Building and painting of enclosing walls

PARTNERSHIP WALL

We have started an exciting new project called the Partnership Wall. You all know us by face, yet there are very few of you that we know by face! We would like to get to know our partners better, and that is the reason we are embarking on creating the Partnership wall.If you are a partner with us, please consider sending us a photograph of yourself; you can do so by email, Facebook, Twitter or even using the postal service! Send your best photo, so 'selfies' won't really work! Your photograph will receive a place of honour on the Partnership Wall and we will regularly feature it in our programmes. It is a point of connection for us so we would love you to be a part of this.

If you are not already a partner, it is as easy as 2 clicks... go to myfaithtv.com, click on "PARTNER CONNECT", fill in the form, attach your photograph and click on "SEND".



What Hollywood Knows About Resilience, That YOU DON'T!

Love it or hate it, one thing you can say about many producers in Hollywood is that they are remarkably resilient. They don't give up, and in some cases keep pitching ideas for years. There's something to be said for that, because in my experience, when people outside Hollywood hit a wall, get rejected, or suffer a defeat, nine times out of ten, they give up. But in Hollywood, you'll find producers that are still pitching ideas, concepts, and scripts they developed decades ago – and in an amazing number of cases, they eventually strike gold.
For instance, back in the 1980's, Ken Wales, who's had a long career as a producer in Hollywood acquired the rights to Catherine Marshall's book "Christy" – about a pioneer woman living on the American frontier. He pitched that book to every studio in town and did it for years. But time after time, he was turned down. Studio after studio, financier after financier. Turned down flat.

But Ken never gave up. In fact, he just wouldn't let it go, to the point that I started feeling really bad for the guy. So one day I pulled Ken aside and told him to give it a rest. "Ken, nobody wants to make a movie about a pioneer woman. Give it up. Move on with your life." But Ken refused to listen. Then in 1994 – about six months after our conversation, Jeff Sagansky, then president of CBS, bought it and turned the book into a TV series that ran for twenty episodes on that network. Series regular Tyne won an Emmy Award for her work on the series.

Needless to say, Ken Wales taught me the value of resilience. Just like the old Timex watch theme, Ken could take a licking and keep on ticking. So when it comes to resilience, here are a few lessons we could learn from Ken Wales and other producers in Hollywood:

1. Don't be a "One Trick Pony." Ken pitched that book for years, but it wasn't the only project he was developing. He was also working on other movies as well, but always looking for the right opportunity to produce "Christy."

2. Don't burn bridges. I'm sure Ken was laughed at a few times because the 80's weren't a prime era for making movies about pioneer women. Even the "Dr. Quinn Medicine Woman" TV series didn't start until the 90's. But no matter what reception Ken received from studios or other producers, he was always gracious. As a result, he never burned bridges and still has those valuable relationships for pitching other projects.

3. Be open to change. Ken always thought about that project as a movie. But when CBS suggested it could be a dramatic TV series, Ken agreed. But in other situations, I too often hear responses from writers and producers like "It can't be changed," or "This is the way I've always dreamed it would be and I'm not interested in changing it." I'm all for fighting for your vision, but all the artistic vision in the world won't amount to much if you don't have any finished projects to show for it.

4. Learn from Ken Wales. Be resilient. You never know when the right time and circumstance for your project will happen. Only God knows the big picture, so learn to trust, keep your attitude high, and never give up.

How Important Are Mentors in the Office?

BY PHIL COOKE

In many ways, the most important advantage a person has in the workplace are relationships. In the past, "networking" was about taking advantage – what other people can do for me. But today, networking is about helping other people because it's the right thing to do. Whether you believe in God, Karma, or random chance, the truth is, when you help others achieve their dreams, they can help achieve yours. But when it comes to the mentors and allies you have at work, here are some important principles to remember:

1 - Find people who can help you in your weak areas.

If you're weak with numbers, develop a relationship with someone in accounting. If you're weak creatively, get to know the creative team. Too often we spend the most time with people like us, when we should be spending more time with people who complement our skill set. It's not about using them, it's about how together you can be more valuable to the organization.

2 - Be Sincere.

I can tell in less than a minute when someone is simply trying to get something from me. The old saying "They don't care how much you know until they know how much you care" is true. Count on it.

3 - "People skills" are the most important skills you'll ever learn.

I don't care what your job is, your ability to get along with people trumps everything. If you can inspire and motivate people, you'll always be in demand.

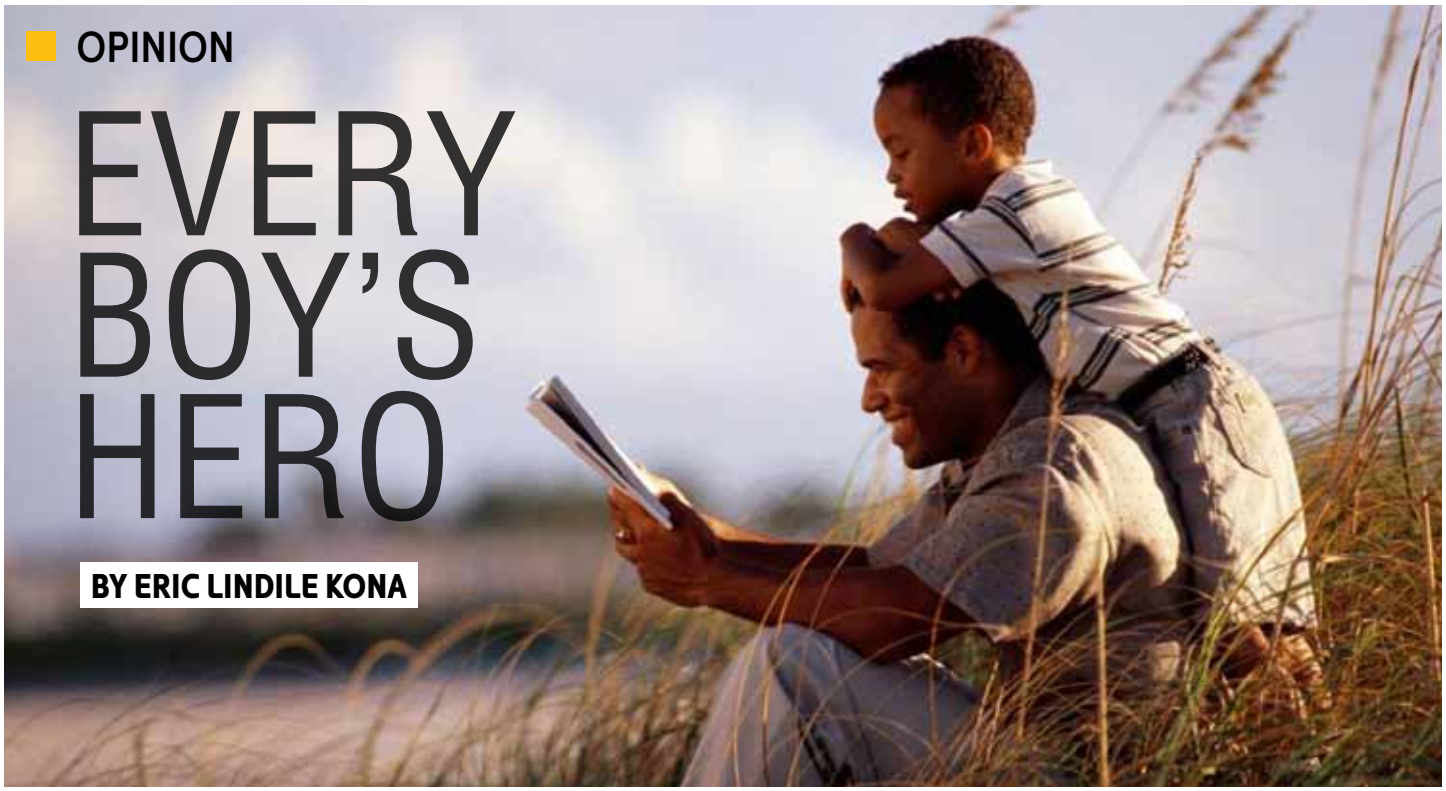
4 - The people you meet on the way up, you'll meet on the way down.

Far too many people are rude and inconsiderate to co-workers while they're rising in the company. But no one knows the future, and you never know who you'll need to know. Be nice now – it can reap powerful dividends later in your career.

5 - Finally, the unexpected people in the office can often help the most.

Early in my career I realized I couldn't spend time with the company president, so I got to know his secretary, an older woman named Ruth. I remembered her birthday, asked about her family, and we became friends. I discovered pretty quickly just how much power the president's secretary really had. An email from her was as authoritative as an email from the boss, and her influence made a huge difference for me. Likewise, security guards, receptionists, and others can help when the chips are down. Never forget that the least powerful people can often have the most influence.

EVERY BOY'S HERO



BY ERIC LINDILE KONA

When a boy is young he looks up to his father as his hero but, one thing he doesn't know is that his hero was wounded from his own past pains. He doesn't know that when his father was a boy he was hurt by his own father and when he cried, he was told not to cry even if his pain was unbearable, because if he cried he would be labeled as weak, so he would keep quiet rather than expressing his pain and frustrations. By keeping quiet, a wound is being created in his soul which would hurt him in his life as a grown-up man, that is why today we see angry men. Men who abuse their wives and girlfriends, physically, emotionally and sexually because they don't know the root causes of their rage towards women. Today he would be sweet and tomorrow he would act like a lion, bitter and angry thus leading to any form of abuse. Being ignorant of the causes of his actions, we label him as cruel, hard and a bad man.

His family and the community start cursing, neglecting and isolating him, even when he runs to church for healing, he is still labeled as a bad man, judged and left alone until he goes back to his old ways, up to the point that he kills someone and he is arrested. Through him every man has been generalized as a "bad" man because of the onesided media coverage, reporting on cases of women abuse by the male sex.

With this, less has been done by governments and churches to help curb the seemingly rising epidemic since the root causes have been ignored and replaced by laws that are there to oppress these men and increasing the wounds that were there in the first place.
This man who went to prison would meet other men who themselves are hurting and this increases the pain in him and no one is there to help him inside prison. When he leaves prison, he believes he has learnt his lesson and believes that his family and the society would accept him, but to his surprise, nobody wants to be close to him. So that pushes him to commit the same sin he had commited before he went to jail.

He starts hurting his son because he doesn't know how to treat him, he wants the best out of him but instead he is emotionally abusing him by calling him names like weak, stupid, sissy etc. This cripples his character.

Men must understand, to a boy, daddy defines manhood which requires bonding with his father. If his father is absent, disengaged or abusive, its painful for him to identify with his dad and he withdraws from manhood. He covers his shame with anger and bitterness.

Today, we are facing a society of fatherless children which is why we need to identify the root of the pain that men face. Millions are seeking to find the missing father by:

- seeking approval of others;
- engaging in compulsive behaviors and addictive practices which are tragic at the end;
- seeking pleasure but remaining empty inside;
- joining a group to find a sense of family or belonging e.g. a gang;
- they are full of emptiness and anger;
- they fill their emptiness by drinking too much alcohol and do more drugs;
- crime is one of the things that makes them feel strong;

Nations are increasing the number of policemen and soldiers in order to reduce crime, but instead crime is increasing daily from the result of fatherlessness.

The same policemen and women are coming from fatherless families, that is why they themselves are committing crime. We have seen a number of these policemen being arrested for committing crimes.

It has been researched that school dropouts and teenage pregnancies are the results of absent fathers in the family.
Many schools, companies, firms, churches and organizations are filled with people with orphan mentality. As long as governments and churches don't know how to fix this problem, families are still going to be dysfunctional and the world will go down the drain if we don't wake up and fix this problem.

There is more to be discussed on this issue. I believe by writing this people are going to be provoked in getting a solution on this issue.

Remember, hurt people, hurt people.

COMMISSION EXPERIENCE WITH EVERY TRIBE MISSIONS

BY LESEGO MALEMELA

Jesus commanded His followers in Mark 16:15, And He said to them, "Go into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature." And in Acts 1:8 He tells us, "But you shall receive power when the Holy Spirit has come upon you, and you shall be witnesses to Me in Jerusalem and in all Judea and Samaria and to the end of the earth."

Simply put, the great Commission is, 'Go tell somebody'! Although a Christian for a while, the thought of going up to a stranger or even entering their homes, and tell them about the love of God and what He has done for us through Jesus' death on the cross, terrified me. It was more a fear of being rejected by people, after telling them the good news. After all, it was much easier talking about Him and what He's done, to people who believed the same or those close who didn't mind listening. I knew on the inside that I could not run from this because it was my Lord's command to me. I felt disappointed in myself and I knew I was not in obedience to Him.

My first Commission trip, was with a huge group and I was scared because I thought I didn't have what it takes to do this. A lie from the devil who would try anything to stop us from telling others that God loves them and that He has a great plan for their lives. The Holy Spirit brought to remembrance that He who is in me, was greater than he who is in the world. I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me, and that He is the Helper, He gives us the right words to speak. And yes that is exactly what He did, I had to rely on Him, trust Him and work together with my team because we needed each other. Working together as a group and putting others ahead of yourself made it so easy to tell people about Christ. Jesus said these signs shall follow them that believe, when preaching the good news signs and wonders must follow the preaching of the word (Mark 16:20). I learned in those moments when we asked people if they had any sickness, etc. When they said yes we pray the prayer of faith that will heal the sick for it is by His stripes that we are healed. God would honour His word and according to their faith He heals them. I wanted to just cry because in the beginning I was scared that nothing will happen and they will think God is not real. But God used the team to help overcome that lie, because He watches over His word. I have seen deaf ears open, blind eyes opened and pain leave peoples' bodies through the laying on of hands. I met a man on the dusty road after speaking to a shop owner who received Jesus as his Lord and Saviour. He told me he was deaf in one ear so asked him if believed in Jesus, yes he answered but he did not receive Him as Lord. So I told Him what Jesus has done for us on the cross, the man said he wants to receive Jesus as his Lord and have a relationship with Him. After praying the prayer of salvation I laid my hands on his ear commanding the deaf ear to open in Jesus name. It opened and the man could hear as clear as the other ear. Hallelujah, glory to God!I have now done six trips and each experience is different and it gets better.

Commission trip leaders make the trip exciting, worthwhile and give you an experience you will never forget. They prepare the journey well ahead spiritually and physically to give each person that comes on a trip an unforgettable experience. They make each individual feel at home and new comers feel welcome and great to be part of what God is doing through the whole team. Their focus on the vision of Every Tribe Mission helps you to be focused and serve the vision with passion. We must deliver that which we have received: that Christ died for our sins according to the Scriptures, and that He was buried and that He rose again on the third day according to the Scriptures and that He is coming back. It is by confessing with our mouths that Jesus is Lord, and believing in our hearts that God raised Jesus from the dead that we are saved. People know about God but not everybody has a relationship with God through His Son Jesus Christ. People we meet, believe that by going to church that they are saved. When we tell them what the Bible says concerning salvation and having a relationship with the Lord Jesus, they realize that they don't have a relationship with Him. The love of God is so powerful, and hearing that God, the Creator of the universe loves you and that He's not mad at you melts the hardest heart. Out in the field you see how people live and your heart melts and the love of God compels you to live not only for yourselves. Just think for a moment, what if nobody ever told me about Jesus, where would I have been today?

Jesus said, "The harvest truly is plentiful, but the laborers are few." Today His voice still speaks that the harvest is plenty and we have to go into the harvest field to pick the fruit. Commission trips are made possible through Every Tribe Missions. They make it possible for you and me to go into the world and preach the gospel. Being part of a trip also ignites a new passion for the lost, and gives you vision to go and tell where you are an influence already. It gives you boldness to speak to strangers, I can testify to that, it is amazing. Out there, people are hungry to hear the truth, they hunger for love that is real and they are just waiting for you and me, to let out what God has placed inside us.
So come on, join us on one of our scheduled Every Tribe Missions Open trips!

Tenahead Mountain Lodge & Spa | South Africa | Eastern Cape | Rhodes

In a remote region of South Africa where three mountain ranges meet - the Drakensberg, the Witteberg and the Maluti - lies a very special place. The hand of man has brushed it but lightly, beautiful San rock art being the only sign of its former inhabitants. These 3 500 hectares of unspoiled mountains, valleys and streams hold a treasury of flora and fauna, and it is the perfect place to experience another life.

The Royal Guest House | South Africa | Eastern Cape | Port Alfred

The Royal Guest House is high on the East Bank of the Kowie River, which runs through Port Alfred and overlooks the peaceful Marina. We are two minutes' drive from the centre of town, where you have access to every modern amenity, and one minute's drive from the nearest beach. The beaches are almost deserted, and our main beach is a safe Blue Flag-recognised beach, adding to the beauty of the Royal Guest House.

Tsitsikamma Lodge & Spa | South Africa | Eastern Cape | Storms River

In the heart of the Tsitsikamma, where the forest and the mountains dance together under the African sun, lies a special place. Built entirely from timber sourced from the surrounding forests, Tsitsikamma lodge has been created over many years of building and shaping. Indulge in excellent service and personal attention at this multiple award winning lodge.

Halyards Hotel & Spa | South Africa | Eastern Cape | Port Alfred

Few places on earth share the stunning beauty of Port Alfred, which has been further enhanced by the successful development of the Royal Alfred Marina. The Halyards Hotel stands as a beacon on this marina and is an international landmark. The Halyards Hotel, splendidly set along the waterfront of the popular Royal Alfred Marina, and with fine waterfront hospitality, is the ideal getaway destination.

Mansfield Game Reserve | South Africa | Eastern Cape | Port Alfred

Ideally situated midway between Port Elizabeth and East London, Mansfield Game Reserve lies nestled amongst 1000 acres of lush, undulating grassland and thornveld plateaus. Vegetation here is typical Eastern Cape sweetveld and bush, with the landscape and kloofs providing the ideal habitat for rare cycads and Sneezewood, Yellowwood and Knobthorn trees, to name but a few. This makes Mansfield a unique place, with a wide variety of game to view.

Bushman Sands Golf Lodge | South Africa | Eastern Cape | Alicedale

Bushman Sands Golf Lodge is situated in the heart of the greater Addo and is surrounded by beautiful countryside and a picturesque golf course. The 18 hole championship golf course is challenging yet friendly, follows the banks of the Bushman's and New Year's rivers and is to be enjoyed by all golfing enthusiasts. The Lodge boasts tastefully decorated Luxurious rooms, all en-suite, featuring spacious bath rooms with a bath, shower, twin vanity and toilet.

River Spas | Halyards Hotel | Tsitsikamma Lodge | Tenahead Mountain Reserve

River Spas consists of three individual spas; these are found at the Halyards Hotel, Tsitsikamma Lodge and the Tenahead Mountain Reserve. Step into the tranquil atmosphere of these spas with their beautiful décor, and relax in the hands of our professionally-trained beauty therapists. Come and rejuvenate your mind and body in a timeless place. Lose all sense of time as you relax and unwind at a River Spa near you.

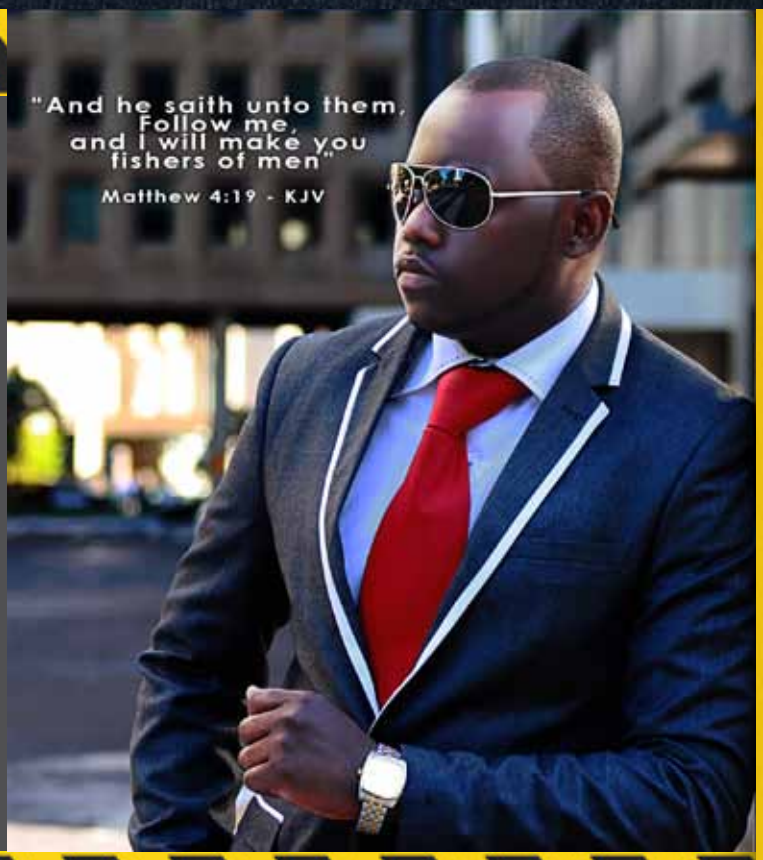
AMBASSADOR J LOEMBA



Ambassador J Loemba (LJ) is an Award winning Music artist (rapper, song writer, Record label owner), Inspirational Speaker, Entrepreneur, Radio/TV presenter, Philanthropist, Husband and Father of a beautiful girl, who's passionate about changing lives through the love of Jesus Christ and building communities.

He has worked, performed and shared the stage with well-known artists such as SA Idols' first winner Karin Kortje (South Africa's version of American Idol), CJay (SABC Crown Gospel Award 2013 winner), Neville D (Mzanzi Gospel Award 2015 winner) , Chumani Ngojo (SABC Crown Gospel Award & Victory Award winner),Mano Juvane (2 x Nominee for Best Rap Album SABC Crown Gospel Music Award 2013-2014),Colin Mitchells (Winner of the Best Group Award at the Praise Gospel Music Award 2014) and many more in the Music industry.

He is the Founder of several organisations such as Christ Impact Records, M'FUMU Group(An Investment and service provider company),R.O.C League (an organization made of people from different walks of life that are passionate about using their talents, skills, time to rebuild their cities on the economic, social, morale levels.)
He has been nominated for several Awards such as Best Rap Album @ the SABC Crown Gospel Music Awards 2014, Best Outreach Artist @ the SABC Crown Gospel Music Awards2014, which is the biggest Gospel Award Event in Africa. Ambassador J Loemba also won the Best Music Video/DVD Victory Award @ the Victory Gospel Music Awards 2014. His collaboration with Yves Mtt was also nominated for Best Rock Album at the Mzanzi Gospel Music Award 2015

Ambassador J Loemba has been invited to perform at events such as Victory Awards 2014 which took place at Artscape (one of the best Art Auditorium in South Africa), the International Youth GANG Convention in the USA gathering thousands of young people, the AFRICA FASHION WEEK LONDON2015 which is an international event covered by International Press houses such as BBC, Bloomberg Africa TV, London TV etc

Ambassador J Loemba also lent his voice has a Brand Ambassador for two brand new cold drinks of BRALICO Company called MBOKA COLA and SUKO ORANGE.

As the Host of the Christ Impact Show, Ambassador J Loemba has interviewed International Artists such as Donnie Mc Clurkin (Grammy,Stellar,Dove Award winner) ; Hezekiah Walker (Grammy Award winner etc), Neville D, C Jay, Nwabisa Lisa (Founder of Victory Awards),Colin Mitchells, Sundae, the Number one Gospel Group in Europe called Exo Eclats, the Father of French Gospel Marcel Boungou who has worked and shared the stage with great Artists like Ray Charles, Ron Kenoly,CeCe Winans, worked with Hollywood (Lion King Movie sound track) and much more.

While he was still a teenager he already had his music on private and national radio and TV stations, became one of the most famous rappers and featured with the best rappers of his country even with one of the pioneers of the Hip Hop movement in Congo Brazzaville with whom they created a crew made of some of the best and well known rappers to record an album that was going to be submitted to a record label in France (2nd biggest Hip Hop Industry in the world) but he never finished the project because his father sent him overseas to further his studies due to Social ,Educational and Economic instability caused by war.

One day, he met the famous South African musician Mandoza who is a recipient of several Awards, he was willing to give him a chance in the Music industry but Ambassador J Loemba didn't have his demo on him, Mandoza told him that an upcoming artist must always have his music on him. Since that day he always carries his music with him because he learnt that opportunities never ask for an appointment they simply show up.

Ambassador J Loemba, almost grew up as an atheist, the only thing he knew from his childhood was black, white and red magic. One night he was in the Baphomet star, the other at the Kouilou river bank calling up on Water spirits or doing voodoo with pygmies of Sibiti while young people of his age were busy sleeping or watching movies.

But all that changed the day he heard God's audible voice in the midst of his sinful life, that day was the beginning of a new journey.

When He got born again after the death of his Father, he decided to stop doing any music that promoted violence, misogyny etc

In 2007 he met and had a discussion with Multi-Grammy award winner and host of the Sunday best Show on BET from the USA named Donnie McClurkin, during which Ambassador J Loemba (LJ) was encouraged to use his music gift to touch souls and expand his preaching ministry to reach the masses. In November 2012, Ambassador LJ Pre-released his debut urban gospel album titled "FOLLOW ME" which has been well received both locally and internationally by the media [Radio (CCfm Radio, Paarl Radio, Atlantis Radio, CV Radio, Ikamva Radio etc), TV stations (SABC, ONE Gospel TV, FAITH TV formerly known as TBN Africa, CTV, Bay TV, Soweto TV etc), Newspapers, Internet] as well as listeners alike.

His music videos have been selected in the top 10 and also the Top 101 of the most requested and favourite music videos of 2013 on ONE Gospel TV(DSTV Channel 331), respectively.

The "FOLLOW ME" Album has won one Victory Award for Best Music Video/DVD and received 2 SABC Crown Gospel Music Awards Nominations for "Best Rap Album" & "Best Community Outreach Artist"

Ambassador J Loemba is currently working on a movie/Documentary and music project called N.M.V focusing on supporting the vic tims of violence, family struggling to pay their kids school fees and bringing awareness about the causes and consequences of crime/violence by inviting everyone to take action in order to stand against the violence that is destroying our communities and children.

This project is peculiar because the album, Documentaries and movie are made of Ex Gangsters, Ex Drug Addicts, Ex Prostitutes, teachers, parents, students, and communities' leaders and well known Gospel artists who can sing and act.
Ambassador j Loemba has been promoting the NMV (No More Violence) Project several times in schools,
Churches, during Concerts, on Radio Stations and TV channels such as Bay TV, CTV and many more.

He has already released two Episodes of the NMV Documentary Series, some of them have been broadcasted several times on DSTV and they are also available on Youtube.

Through the NMV (Album, Movie, Documentary) & ROC League, Ambassador J Loemba has been busy helping the Homeless people (giving them blankets, gloves, bibles, food etc) , Gangsters , prostitutes and young people (students etc) in Township and suburbs; some of these activities are included in the NMV Documentary Series.

One of his songs "Invincible" has been selected to be broadcasted LIVE on one of the greatest Sport Channels in the World "Super Sport" during the EFC Fight of KnifeDidier VS Vermeulen.

Through Ambassador J Loemba Outreach Activities (in South Africa and overseas), several lives have been and are still being changed and inspired.

THE GOOD BOOK
4 SEPT
19:00-21:00

A tiny New Testament passes through the hands of 14 strangers. For 7 of them, their lives will never be the same. Daniel is separated from his family due to his careless mistake. Alex and his wife Marion must trust God to fill the gaping hole in their lives. Sarah deals with homelessness and rejection by society. Ruth has no problems accepting others until she too, is scorned. Leah must cope not only with her husband's alcoholism, but now with her daughter's lawless behaviour. Caleb encounters ultimate persecution for his faith. Each is hurting, but each finds solace in The Good Book.

WHEN CRISIS STRIKES
11 SEPT
19:00-21:00

This movie takes you into a dramatic re-creation of a hostage situation in which a man holds several teens in a classroom because he is particularly angry with one, Matt Robinson, who helped identify his brother as a car-jacker. The teens are forced to lie face down on the floor and the assailant threatens them constantly with a gun, telling them to not look up. Matt's family is faced with this traumatic situation after recently losing Matt's older sister Stacey, who died in a car crash.

THE SABER
18 SEPT
19:00-21:00

Cadet Cameron O'Connor, class leader and computer whiz-kid, succumbs to the lure of Internet pornography, losing what he deems most precious - his relationship with Allison and his future at the Military Academy. A crisis of faith leads to his only hope.

ALL FOR LIBERTY
25 SEPT
19:00-21:00

It is 1775. Henry Felder, a Swiss-German colonist, lives with his family in the Back-country of South Carolina. However, he and his community are suffering under British injustice. After many years of struggling with corrupt British rulers, Felder is urged by the new patriot governor to write Articles of Separation from the English King. Felder's old Indian fighting comrade, Bill Jenkins forms a Tory militia to assist the Crown as the fight heats up. Felder raises his own militia, including a woman tavern owner who gathers a patriot spy ring. In the ensuing struggles Felder and his family discover the cost of freedom.

BECOMING JESSE TATE

DRAMA
SAT, 5 SEPT
20:00-22:00

Jesse Tate is a vivacious 13 year-old girl trying to cope with life while keeping a family secret. She struggles to be part of the "in crowd" and the weird new feeling that boys really aren't that dumb, all while going to church and keeping her grades up. It's a lot for anyone to handle.

NATALIE'S ROSE

SAT, 12 SEPT
20:00-22:00

Natalie is devastated when she loses her mom. Now she is going to the place that always put her mom at ease, Red Rock Ranch. There she finds a way to deal with the death and move on with her life without forgetting the memory of her mom. But Natalie is not the only one who has to confront her feelings.

OVERCOME

SAT, 19 SEPT
20:00-22:00

A young man in high school mistreats anyone good around him, until he has a fateful accident which changes his life. Now he must make amends to all those around him, and try to become the person he knew he should have been the whole time.

ANGELS LOVE DONUTS

COMEDY - FAMILY
SAT, 26 SEPT
20:00-22:00

A comedy about dying that will change the way you live, and renew your faith. On an otherwise ordinary day, prominent businessman John A. Money's life is thrown into chaos when a quirky donut-eating Angel of Death appears and announces that he's come to take John to the Pearly Gates. With just 24 hours until his departure – John looks at life, his family and his faith through a fresh set of eyes.

SUNDAY MOVIE

RESERVE SPY TRAINING CORP

ACTION - ALL
