FROM THE EDITOR

This has truly been a whirlwind year! So much has happened in the Faith family, and I will briefly summarize the highlights!

Faith Church Naples was launched at the beginning of the year; January also saw the inauguration of the new Faith Studio USA located in Naples FL; the Faith Dome was officially opened in July with Faith Revival 4.0, at which time the River Church was also renamed Faith Church Buffalo City. October was the Faith Revival Tour to the 9 provinces in South Africa, a kind of throwback to the start of the ministry with Revival South Africa. The tour ended in East London with Faith Revival 5.0 at the Faith Dome.

Despite all these milestones and celebrating the goodness of God in all of this, we need to take some time to reflect on the "why" underlying the activity. The "why" has always been in answer to the commission of Jesus to us to spread the good news. And this we do with any means at our disposal!

The danger - yes, there is a warning here - is that we become so busy with the "stuff" of God, with "doing things" for God, that sometimes we are lured away from our relationship with Him! We need to realize that God loves us just for who we are, for who Christ is in us, and chooses to pursue a relationship with us with no expectation other than we show up and participate!

God is not really interested in what we do, but more interested in why we do what we do. And herein lies the answer to and escape from the danger. When all our "doing" is motivated by His love, then He will remain the center of attraction in our thoughts and life. We are accepted by God even when "doing" nothing! An incredible concept.

This is not a license for laziness, or for just aimlessly wandering through life, but rather it is the fuel to see us live the gospel, and do the great works of faith! It remains true that faith without works is simply dead; so faith with works becomes the fruit (evidence) of our special relationship with God. We also know that without faith it is impossible to please God, so when we only have works that are not motivated by love and faith, we endanger the intimacy of our communion with Him!

Be encouraged! You are loved! You live by faith! Your fruit is evidence of God's love for you!

CAN WE HEAR GOD?

John 14:21 (AMPC), "The person who has My commands and keeps them is the one who [really] loves Me; and whoever [really] loves Me will be loved by My Father, and I [too] will love him and will show (reveal, manifest) Myself to him. [I will let Myself be clearly seen by him and make Myself real to him.]"

What a powerful scripture! Jesus promises to reveal Himself to us, to let Himself be clearly seen by us, and make Himself real to us. Isn't this the cry of all our hearts? Well, according to this verse - it's a promise we can certainly experience. And not just when our bodies die and our spirits go to heaven, but now, while we are here, living on earth!

Obviously the question we need answered is how? How, on earth, do we get to see Jesus this way? Well, the first part of this piece of scripture tells us quite clearly doesn't it? It all has to do with God's Word abiding so strongly in us, that we begin to know and experience His overwhelming love for and in us. This is where we get to see Jesus.

Let's back up a little to John 15:7, where Jesus speaks about His Word abiding, or living in our hearts.

John 15:7 says, "If you live in Me [abide vitally united to Me] and My words remain in you and continue to live in your hearts, ask whatever you will, and it shall be done for you."

I believe this verse holds the key for us to see Jesus and walk in the fullness of life and victory Jesus secured for us, through the finished work of the cross. It sheds critical light on how our relationship with God's Word directly affects our relationship with Him and the influence this relationship has on our prayers - when we pray from this place of abiding!

In explaining the transformation process we experience when we choose to abide in Jesus - the Living Word continually living inside us - we want to dig a little deeper into the process, showing you how the Word of God, when embraced, becomes a surgical tool in the hands of the Holy Spirit - to the place where the eyes of our hearts are wide open to see God.

Hebrews 4:12 says, "For the Word that God speaks is alive and full of power [making it active, operative, energizing, and effective]; it is sharper than any two-edged sword, penetrating to the dividing line of the breath of life (soul) and [the immortal] spirit, and of joints and marrow [of the deepest parts of our nature], exposing and sifting and analyzing and judging the very thoughts and purposes of the heart."

Oh, I can't tell you how much I love this verse, it holds such weighty truth! You can't but shudder at the authority it credits to the word of a God being alive in our hearts. That's why it's essential for us to hold God's word in such high regard. It is alive and full of power to go to work on the inside of every believer and transform our very nature, at its core.

It's that same seed of God's incorruptible word that was supernaturally planted within our spirits the moment we accepted Jesus Christ as Lord and Saviour of our lives. It began its transforming work the instant we received and embraced it! That work was so powerful it snatched us out of the kingdom of darkness and transferred us into the kingdom of light in an instant!

Can you just imagine what it can do in and to us if we continue to let it dwell in us richly? Oh my, I can, because scripture tells us exactly what it can and will do, if we fully open our lives to it:

2 Corinthians 3:18 says, "And all of us, as with unveiled face, [because we] continued to behold [in the Word of God] as in a mirror the glory of the Lord, are constantly being transfigured into His very own image in ever increasing splendour and from one degree of glory to another; [for this comes] from the Lord [Who is] the Spirit."

There it is - the power of God's Word allows us to clearly see the glory of God. We see the very nature of God: His goodness, His kindness, His faithfulness, His mercy, His awesome power, His majesty, His indescribable beauty. The true nature of God is revealed as a reflection when we look deeply, with open, eager hearts into His Word.

Now, because His Holy Spirit is doing the revealing, what we learn and see goes beyond mere knowledge. We don't just learn about the nature of God when His Word comes alive in us - we experience Him! We actually encounter Him in His word.

And it's when we do, we are changed, one glorious degree at a time into His very own image. And it's not just a small degree of change - it's a continuous, ever increasing degree of splendour, from glory to glory! All done by His Spirit Who lives inside us!

You'll recognise the process of this transformation the instant the word becomes life to you. It's as though the light was switched on in your soul, and you see and understand something with more than just in your mind, your spirit actually leaps with joy at the truth that has reached its home in you.

You actually feel so connected to the Lord and alive in Him at that very moment. You actually feel Him in that truth because you experience everything the Word says His Presence is.

The spontaneous joy, the pleasure and delight, the peace, the unending hope, His overwhelming love - all of it abounding at the same time, rushing up like a powerful fountain inside you. This is where the Holy Spirit reveals God to us, in His Word.

For me, this is where I know, without a shadow of a doubt, He is alive in me, He is with me, He is for me, and He is EVERYTHING His word says He is to me! It's when I know I'm completely rooted in

Him, and every worry, every concern, every fear pales in comparison to the confidence and faith I have in Jesus and His incorruptible Word that's alive and dwelling in me - all in that moment.

So what does this have to do with what we can believe God for in prayer? Well, everything! You see, experiencing Jesus in His word like this, where your confidence and faith is so real and great - that's when you begin to pray from inside the throne room of God! That's when you begin to declare His word with true power and authority from a position of being seated in heavenly places with Him!

That's when every word you pray resonates with the Spirit of God - as though He is praying through you. You can literally sense each word going out with such power that the very atmosphere around you is charged and there is no doubt that it's producing exactly what its declaring in the spirit realm as well as the natural - hallelujah!

Why? Because we are praying in and on the authority of the Living, revealed Word of God! Against this - nothing can withstand!

When Jesus said, "If you live in Me [abide vitally united to Me] and My words remain in you and continue to live in your hearts, ask whatever you will, and it shall be done for you." ; He gave us a key that will unlock the reality of living in the fullness of life and victory He paid the price for us to enjoy.

THE TRUTH ABOUT LIVING ON THE EDGE

Rat race, whirlwind, daily grind, vicious cycle...all descriptions that often come to mind when people are discussing their lives.

It's a common and very acceptable – maybe even expected – way to live. JOYCE MEYER says it could be killing us.

Are you living an unsustainable life? Have you ever said things like, “I can’t keep this up much longer. If I have to live like this one more year, it’s probably going to finish me off. I tell you, it’s all just too much!” Do you feel like you’re on a treadmill and if you try to get off, everything will fall apart, so you just keep going? This is what it means to “live on the edge.”

It seems these days that it’s a popular way to look at life. But it’s not the way God wants us to live. People who live on the edge are stressed-out by the demands of life, frustrated, hanging on, just trying to get through one more day. They have reached their limits but are ignoring them and hoping they can get by with it. If you’re living like this, you need to de-stress your life by establishing godly boundaries.

It’s very unfashionable in our American culture to say “I’ve had enough and can’t do anymore.” We seem to think we should be able to do it all, no matter how many commitments and obligations we have, and we compare ourselves with people who appear to be managing it all without a problem, which usually means we are getting our sense of worth and value from what we do, not who we are in Christ.

But I have good news for you: You don’t have to be like anybody else or keep up with anybody else. You need to be who you are – who God created you to be – and you don’t have to apologize for it. It’s okay to say, “I’ve reached my limit.”

Moses is a great example of this. In Exodus 18:13-27, we see that Moses was trying to do too much for the Israelites. He was a good leader, who took his responsibility seriously, but he needed help. When his father-in-law saw how much Moses was doing for the people, he said, “The thing that you are doing is not good” (verse 17 AMP). He then went on to say that if he continued this way, then Moses would wear out, and the people would get worn-out too. Moses could not do it all by himself. We can’t either.

Philippians 4:13 says we can do all things through Christ who gives us strength. Now this doesn’t mean God gives us strength to do everything we want or feel like we should do. God gives us His grace and strength to do what HE is calling us to do. And that’s all we should be doing. When we live like this, we will have peaceful and powerful lives.

So how do we do it? First we have to recognize that if something needs to change, we are going to have to take responsibility to change it. The world is not going to change, the devil is not going to change, and the people in your life may not want to change. But you can change.

The Word of God gives us guidelines and commandments that help us have a better life. For example, the Bible talks about wise thoughtfulness (see Proverbs 1:3). I have a tendency to be a rescuer, but loving people doesn't always mean helping them. Once I realized that Jesus didn't go around trying to make people let Him help them, it really set me free in this area. I was set free to be led by the Holy Spirit about who to help and how much I should help them.

Here's another example. The Bible says the borrower is a slave to the lender (see Proverbs 22:7). Don't be like the guy with the bumper sticker that says "I owe, I owe, so off to work I go."

Whatever you are struggling with – relationships, finances, sickness – the Bible has wisdom to help you set boundaries to change how you handle your situation. You'll find that godly boundaries make your relationships healthier, make you feel better, and help you keep your finances in order and under control.

With God's help, you can manage your life and not let it manage you. This is what it means to live within the boundaries of God's Word...and not on the edge.

"Godly boundaries make your relationships healthier"

THE CONCEPT OF 'EXTREME EDUCATION' WAS DESIGNED TO PROVIDE A CHALLENGING ENVIRONMENT FOR YOUNG PEOPLE TO DISCOVER AND DEVELOP THEIR LEADERSHIP POTENTIAL

WHAT MAKES YOUR PROGRAMME EXTREME AND ADVENTUROUS?

We offer students a wide range of extreme activities to participate in such as: sky diving, bungee jumping, scuba diving, mountain biking, abseiling, kayaking etc.

WHAT IS THE VALUE OF A GAP YEAR PROGRAMME?

A gap year gives young people time to reflect on what they think would be the college/varsity or career choice best suited to their needs. It allows them to clarify their interests and become aware of their strengths and weaknesses.

We also believe a gap year allows them to take advantage of learning that takes place outside the classroom and apply these skills in real life situations, within a protected environment. It is imperative that youths experience life in communities different from those in which they have been living and our extreme gap year programme offers them this experience. We further believe that gap years allow students to learn about a variety of careers before making a critical decision and to gain maturity, initiative and resourcefulness, all valuable life skills.

WHAT OUTCOME DO YOU HOPE IS ACHIEVED IN EVERY STUDENT'S LIFE ONCE COMPLETING YOUR PROGRAMME?

Our programme is designed to meet, challenge and grow the complete individual, body, soul and spirit, as we train tomorrow's leaders today. Our desire is for the young person to have fun and 'discover themselves' as they are developed into a person with vision and purpose. We endeavour to take boys and girls and to mould them into young men and women that will have a positive influence on our society and the world.

DESCRIBE HOW THE PROGRAMME WORKS - WHEN IS YOUR INTAKE, HOW LONG DOES IT LAST AND HOW MUCH DOES IT COST?

The Beyond Adventure Extreme Leadership Gap Year Programme was launched in 2001. We are located 100 kilometres north east of Port Elizabeth in Alicedale. We are situated close to some of the great game reserves such as Addo Elephant Park and Shamwari. Our programme runs from the last week in January till November. The students are accommodated in rooms where they will learn to live with three other students. Cost enquires and further info can be obtained from our offices as well as our website www.beyondadventure.co.za, under the download section.

WHAT MAKES YOUR PROGRAMME UNIQUE AS OPPOSED TO OTHER GAP YEAR COURSES?

We believe the Beyond Adventure concept to be unique in South Africa. The concept of 'Extreme Education' was designed to provide a challenging environment for young people to discover and develop their leadership potential. Leadership deals with direction, vision, purpose and principles and our leadership programme focuses on building the students up, making them aware of other cultures, helping them with emotional bank account building and strengthening them as individuals functioning in a group context.

Most importantly, we run a programme that is founded on Biblical principles with Jesus Christ as the foundation stone.

FAITH DOME REDEFINES EAST LONDON SKYLINE

Visitors to East London that arrive by way of the R72 have for years been met with the city skyline that includes the Telkom tower, Trinity Church spires and some more modern office blocks. More recently, just past the iconic Biko Bridge they are now also met with a view of River Park and its massive white dome. Those visitors arriving by air also fly directly overhead the nearly 10 000m<sup>2</sup> dome.

By December, local residents as well as holiday-makers will easily identify The Faith Dome by its large white roof that towers above the harbour as an iconic landmark. Construction started early in May 2015 on transforming the historic BKB Building into a multi-functional television studio for international broadcasts. Prior to the new steel roof being bolted into place it was necessary to remove all of the wood floors and put in reinforced concrete flooring and beams. An environmental challenge was expertly managed by a qualified crew in the removal of the old roof, still remembered for its characteristic zigzag factory profiles.

A Boost in Tourism

Once completed, the new television studio at River Park, the facilities that will be occupied by Faith Broadcasting Network will see an influx of visitors to East London when live broadcasts are aired from here. The completed studio will be able to record and host anything from conferencing, talk shows, live music events and when needed sports events. There is a healthy forecast for Buffalo City Tourism in the near future.

East London on the International Entertainment Radar

Faith Broadcasting Network already covers the entire continent of Africa with 24/7 programming that is sourced globally as well as recorded in East London. The live recordings are a trademark of Faith Broadcasting Network, and are streamed live via the Internet and distributed digitally, in addition to being broadcast on the various channels under its banner. The channels comprising Faith Broadcasting Network are FaithAfrica (DSTV 341), FaithUK (SkyUK 590), GOtv (Multichoice), FaithTV (available on the FaithNOW App) and FaithTerrestrial (Sentech EC). Digitally the signal can be streamed on smart devices through AppleTV, AmazonTV, ROKU, GoogleTV, Android, Tizen, Xbox and iOS. The efforts of Faith Broadcasting are truly placing East London on the international map with regards to television production, and it seems fitting that a recognizable landmark will soon focus visitors' attention on the important work accomplished here. This is also the only live television studio in the whole of the Eastern Cape, and truly a feather in the cap of Buffalo City at large.

Local Employment Opportunities

Ps André Roebert, CEO of the River Group, has often spoken publicly about the privilege Faith Broadcasting feels in being able to represent Buffalo City, as well as the honour to be able to contribute to the City and her people. The River Group, of which Faith Broadcasting Network forms a part, have over the years offered employment to many locals and have made a positive contribution to the economic and social well-being of the City.

WHY WE SOULD VALUE OUR CREATIVE MISFITS!

Years ago, an incredibly creative friend of mine had graduated from college and was looking for a job. But he was an out of the box thinker who dressed differently, wasn't crazy about rules, and liked to work late at night. As a result, he struggled a bit trying to find anyone who would hire him.

At the same time, a major nonprofit in the same city was installing a huge outdoor video screen to promote the organization to people walking by their building. The problem was, they had no idea what to actually put on the screen, so they hired my creative friend to create some interesting graphics, and maybe even videos.

It was a nonprofit with mostly older employees who weren't crazy about this young, odd, creative person.

But they were desperate, so they were willing to give him a shot.

He started creating some animated graphics for the outdoor screen and the public loved it. So he started doing short videos that were designed to not only highlight the work of the nonprofit, but inspire people. In fact, he timed exactly how long it took a typical passerby to walk by the building. Then he engaged a team of young filmmakers to produce short videos that matched that length.

It started drawing crowds and the nonprofit's donors thought it was a brilliant project.

But there was internal friction. The young producer started getting attention and suddenly other employees started pushing back against him once again – and this time it included his boss.

A short time later the young producer asked if he could form a media department with him as the manager. He presented the idea to his boss, who set up a meeting with the Human Resources director.

But it was an ambush.

The Human Resources director read him the riot act. In spite of how successful he had been with the video screen project, she berated him for the way he dressed, his working habits, and his “independent” attitude. She told him on no uncertain terms that he was a “misfit” and if he couldn't abide by company policies, he would be terminated.

And by the way, he could forget about starting and leading a media department.

My friend resigned the next morning.

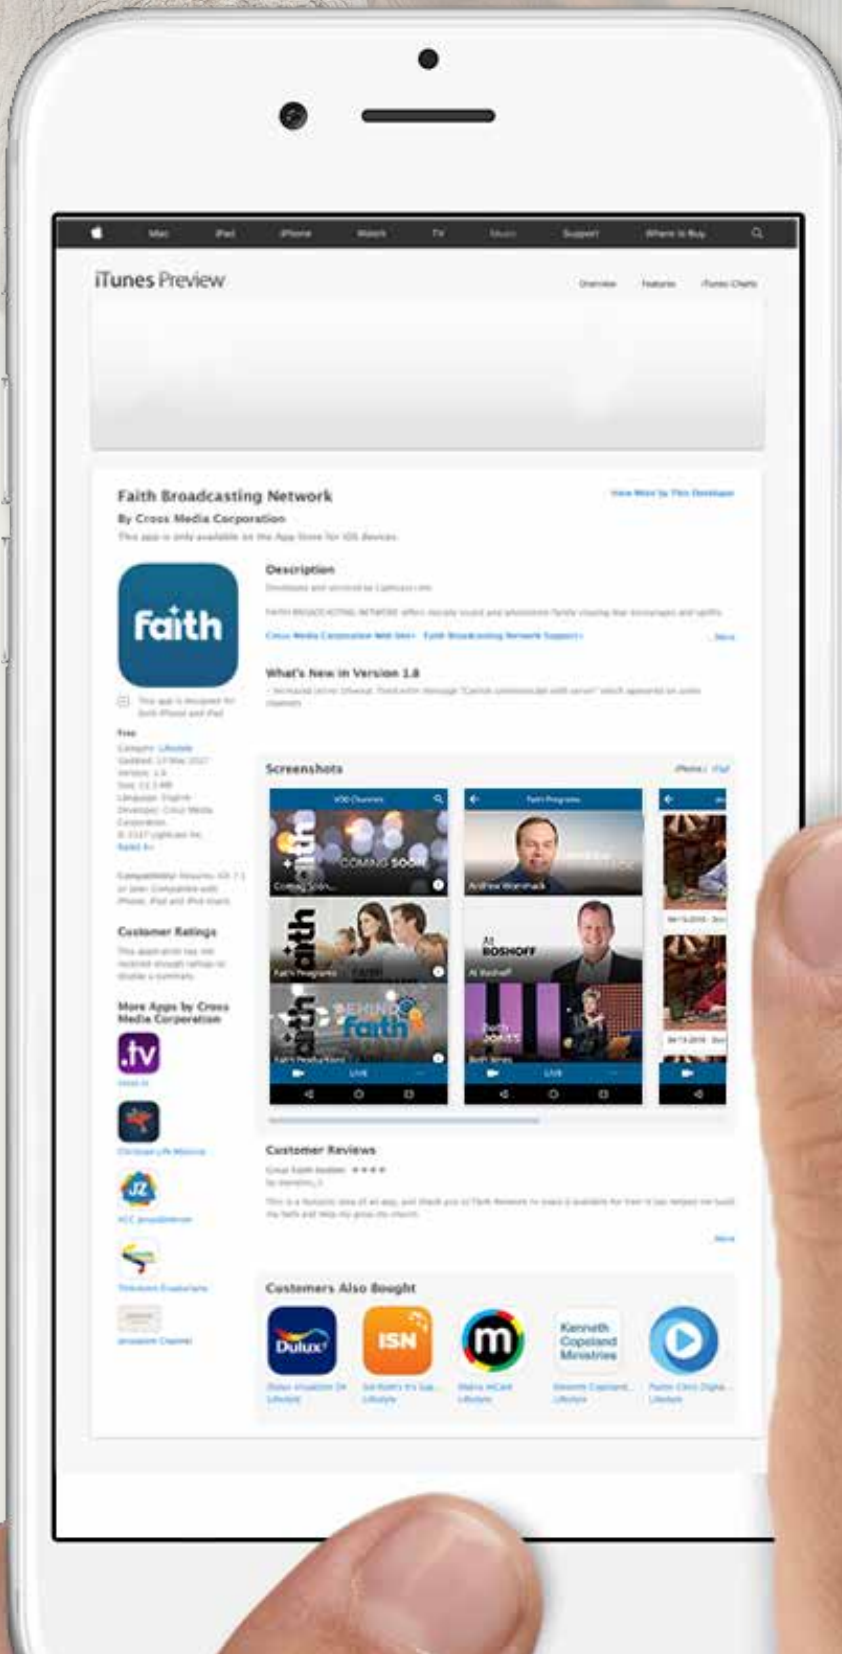

With no one else on staff to create new content, the video project that was making such an impact languished, and eventually they just put a static ministry logo on it.

That creative “misfit” could have transformed that nonprofit, but because they were so stuck in the old ways of doing things, comfortable with being average, and refusal to let anyone else take credit, they slammed that door shut.

You never know where the next great idea will come from, so value the people who generate them, whether they appear to fit in or not.

Don't force everyone into the same box, because people aren't identical.

Neither are their gifts.

ANATOMY OF ANGER

You're standing in a crowd that seems to be pulsating with a murderous anger. People are yelling out insults filled with venom. You're holding up a sign you made the night before. You start to shout along with the hundreds of people around you. You're crying, sweat and tears becoming an indistinguishable liquid on your face.

The crowd's energy gives you an untold excitement and you feel invincible standing and screaming at another crowd you don't know. Why? Why are you standing there yelling out insults? You find yourself standing there, yelling at people you don't know, about an issue you're not even sure about. Why?

You are in a rugby stadium.

That's probably not the first place that comes to mind when you think about the above situation, but what would have been better? Would it have been better if you'd been on a street protesting the government's Affirmative Action Programmes? Or protesting about the latest school curriculum? Perhaps it would be better if you were there advocating vocally for your personal religious beliefs. A martyr standing there for the God you serve. Maybe that would be better.

It's better that way for one family in America, the Phelps family. They are a group of Christian fundamentalists who claim to be on a crusade to hand down God's judgments to people around them. Their main focus is on homosexuals and God's alleged hatred for gay people. 'God hates fags' one of their signs read. They stand on street corners yelling about God's hatred and receive hatred right back. They are known as 'The Most Hated Family in America', and they live in an environment created by their own anger and hatred, which makes you think about doing unto others as you would have them do to you.

I started getting angry as I watched a documentary on this family. How dare they claim to believe in the same Jesus I do? How dare they be so hateful towards people? How dare they...

I was standing in the crowd, holding the sign, yelling at the Phelps family. And maybe that's how you feel also hearing about them, and maybe you don't think that's wrong but I'm not convinced its

During the documentary the journalist, Louis Theroux, started a conversation with a 21-year-old girl in the cult, talking to her about the response she received from people. She spoke of a childhood without friends, and I could see into her sadness as she spoke about all the hatred she had received her whole life. This girl, my age, was a broken girl, struggling to understand why people hated her so much and unsure of the beliefs she'd known her whole life. Now I couldn't simply stand in a crowd and yell at her. It wasn't some faceless person I could get angry at; she was a broken girl in need of love, a girl who was making a lot of mistakes but still a girl in need.

I look at Ghandi and his peaceful protests called Satyaagraha, which translated means 'holding firmly to truth'. Ghandi would not fight and get angry but would simply stand in quiet protest and often he would be beaten. He did this not because he wouldn't stand for truth, but rather because he would. It's so easy to get angry. Anger is the easy solution. We can all access anger. It is a superficial emotion that costs nothing. The problem with anger is that it doesn't change anything. It lets you vent, without changing the situation in any way, without investing anything into a relationship. The Phelps family project their message and when the response from the public is one of hatred it only serves to further entrench their beliefs. The cycle will just carry on if all we ever do is stand in the crowd yelling at people we will never know.

LIVING IN A BROKEN WORLD

Some time back I bought the Lego Movie as a gift for my grandchildren. After returning home I sat with them to watch the movie and what was supposed to be a pleasant, relaxing experience, turned out to be a restless chase for answers coming from the uneasiness in my heart about the underlying messages in the movie.

At first I thought that I was overly critical and asked my daughter to watch it with me and she picked up on the same subtle, twisted, and disturbing misrepresentation of God and the ways of God. I watched the movie again and feel impelled to warn those parents who are concerned about subtle media indoctrination. The article is not a movie review per se, but a call to parents to be more watchful about what they let their children repeatedly feed their minds and soul on. Even the most seemingly innocent movie can be used to indoctrinate our children.

Lego Movie is an exciting, imaginative and impressive movie where actual animated Legos are used. The plot is about a Lego character

Emmet, who in the world of LEGOs, is nothing special. He, along with his “friends” work in a construction yard, with everyone getting along and everything going exactly as planned. Emmett has the perfect life. One day, while he is out working in the yard, he notices some suspicious activity from a female LEGO. Emmett warns her she is trespassing on construction property and needs to leave. When she refuses to listen, he follows her and accidentally falls down a giant hole. Inside the hole, he discovers a powerful gem buried in the ground. After carelessly touching the gem, he blacks out, only to find himself in a police station, being questioned by Bad Cop, about why he was down there and what he knows about the gem. Just then, the mysterious girl we met earlier, rescues him and helps him escape from police custody. She explains that he is "The Special," the person who it was prophesied with the help of the other Master Builders, to free the LEGOs from the tyranny of President Business (whose goal is to achieve world domination through force of will. It has a very happy theme song that says: Everything is awesome, everything is cool when you part of a team, everything is awesome when we're living our dream.

"In my opinion there a trend of downplaying the efforts of God's people trying to build His Kingdom in the right way."

When I asked my oldest grandson (6) at the end of the movie what the lesson was for him, he said, that we must believe in God; and this is exactly why I am writing the article as I sat with confused thoughts about why this could not just be a Lego movie. Why did the movie have parallels with God and prophecies, and the Special one and a prophecy that was not true in any way?

My first awareness was that there is a reference to a prophecy of a Special one that will come. I felt saddened that children of a young age must have a distorted view of prophecies and must be indoctrinated when watching a movie aimed at them.

It is written in Acts 2:17, that in the last days the sons and daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions. I do not want my grandchildren not to believe that they can receive dreams and visions that can be relevant to God's people.

In this movie it says that the prophecy was all a lie. I don't want my grandchildren to be confused about prophecies from God.

If we read 1 Peter 2: 4- 8 we see that "The stone that the builders rejected has become the capstone." Emmet represents the one that was prophesied over and is also rejected because he was so ordinary.

It is disturbing that there is a reference in the movie to “the man upstairs”, which refers to God. The “man upstairs” is the oppressive creator of everything, who wants to prevent everyone from experiencing anything fun and different, in order to keep creation static in nature. The “man upstairs” is corrected, taught and converted by his creation in the end. This movie is an anti-God allegory.

What I know about God is that He is not unsettled with the diversity of people. He gave us command to reign over the earth and He gave various gifts so that people can bring creativity to the world around them and His people.

In the Lego Movie it also speaks about master builders. Firstly, Emmet is called a master builder:

Vitruvius: Master Builders spend years training themselves to clear their minds enough to have even a fleeting glimpse of The Man Upstairs. And yet, your mind is already so prodigiously empty that there is nothing in it to clear away in the first place. With proper training you could become a great Master Builder.

Emmet Brickowski: I could?

Vitruvius: The prophecy chose you, Emmet.

Emmet Brickowski: But I can't do any of the stuff that the prophecy says I'm supposed to do.

Vitruvius: All you have to do is to believe, then you will see everything. Are you ready, my son?

Emmet Brickowski: Yes, I am. I think."

In Ephesians 2 the Apostle Paul speaks of himself as a master builder. Apostles are supernaturally gifted people to help build churches and keep them spiritually healthy. Prophets help the church understand the purposes of God. In my opinion there a trend of downplaying the efforts of God's people trying to build His Kingdom in the right way. The Lego Movie also refers to the fact that there will be a torturing of the Master Builders.

Heaven is depicted as Cloud Cuckoo Land with mutttons, torture weapons, poverty, leaches, illiteracy – in fact, all which is bad.

Emmet Brickowski: Uh...is this Cloud Cuckoo Land? I don't see any clouds, or cuckoos.

Vitruvius: No, no. This is Middle Zealand. A wondrous land full of knights, castles, mutttons, torture weapons, poverty, leaches, illiteracy, and um...

[suddenly a dragon flies towards them]

I thought I was just a doubting grandmother but I believe that the creators of this movie had a definite goal in mind to bring confusion to the mind of a child. The movie script even uses direct Scripture quotes like, “And if a house is divided against itself, that house will not be able to stand” (Mark 3: 25 / Matthew 12:25).

Other double mindedness that also comes through in the movie is where it portrays the cop as a good cop / bad cop, and one that even looses it 's face. The “man upstairs” expected the police to harm his own parents. In an imperfect world where there is such an excessive emphasis on abuse and the family and authority figures not being a safe place, I find it unnecessary that children must be fed these messages.

Call to parents

My suggestion is that parents of young children watch movies with their kids first and also take more notice of what they download on their tablets. I was doing it 20 years ago with my daughter (now 28), and gave her the tools, even then, to discern right from wrong from a Biblical perspective. Today I see how she has awareness with her own children and not granting the enemy a foothold through media and other sources.

We cannot let our children watch movies repeatedly where it leaves the child in confusion about God's heart for His people. It is easier for parents to see aspects of witchcraft and the occult, like ghosts, a sorcerer's staff, glowing eyes and such like, but what about principles of the Kingdom that's being twisted from such a young age?

Everything around us is not just awesome. We live in a broken world. We don't just need “faith in ourselves and then everything will be awesome,” as the movie suggests, but we have a real need of God.

I suggest parents play the Word of God in audio form in their kids rooms when putting them to sleep to be soaked in Truth. There are also resources available intended to grow kids spiritually rather than confusing them.
